And whereas certain of the defendants appealed from said decree to the Supreme Court of the United States, which court, after duly considering the same, did, on the fifteenth day of May, 1911, order, adjudge and decree that the decree of the said Circuit Court in this cause be modified as indicated in the opinion of the said Supreme Court, and as so modified, affirmed, the said Circuit Court to retain jurisdiction to the extent necessary to compel compliance in every respect with its decree.

And whereas the modification indicated in the opinion of the Supreme Court was in the following language, viz.:

> We think that in view of the magnitude of the interests involved and their complexity that the delay of thirty days allowed for executing the decree was too short and should be extended so as to embrace a period of at least six months. So, also, in view of the possible serious injury to result to the public from an absolute cessation of interstate commerce in petroleum and its products by such vast agencies as are embraced in the combination, a result which might arise from that portion of the decree which enjoined carrying on of interstate commerce not only by the New Jersey corporation, but by all the subsidiary companies, until the dissolution of the combination by the transfer of the stocks in accordance with the decree should not have been awarded.
> Our conclusion is that the decree below was right and should be affirmed, except as to the minor matters concerning which we have indicated the decree should be modified.

And whereas the mandate of the Supreme Court having been duly issued and filed in the office of the clerk of this court affirming said judgment, now, therefore, on motion of the United States it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed:

(1) Subdivision 9 of the original decree in this cause is hereby modified in accordance with the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States so as to extend the period of thirty days therein prescribed to six months after the date of filing the mandate in this cause, to wit, six months from the 21st day of June, 1911, or to such later date as this court may hereafter prescribe on application made therefor.

(2) That subdivision 7 of the original decree in this cause, wherein the defendants named in section 2 of the decree were enjoined and prohibited until the discontinuance of the operation of the illegal combination from engaging or continuing in commerce among the States or in the Territories of the United States, is hereby amended in accordance with the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States, and the said defendant corporations are not enjoined pending the six months provided hereby, or any additional time allowed by the court, for the dissolution of the combination from so engaging or continuing in commerce among the States or in the Territories of the United States.

(3) That in all other respects the said original decree and all parts thereof remain in full force and effect, and this court hereby retains jurisdiction of said cause to the extent necessary to compel a compliance with the same in every respect.

Any party to this cause may apply on the foot of this decree for further directions.

Final Decree in U. S. v. American Tobacco Co.

IN THE

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK.

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

AGAINST

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY
and others,
Defendants.

Decree.

Appeals have been taken by the plaintiff and certain defendants in this cause from the decree entered by this Court on the 15th day of December, 1908, the Supreme Court of the United States reversed said decree and issued its mandate filed herein on the 30th day of June, 1911, by which the said cause was remanded to this Court with directions to enter a decree in conformity with the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States, and to take such further steps as might be necessary to fully carry out said directions. By the said opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States this Court was directed to "hear the parties by evidence or otherwise as it may deem proper, for the purpose of ascertaining and determining upon some plan or method of dissolving the combination, and of recreating out of the elements now composing it a new condition which shall be honestly in harmony with, and not repugnant to, the law, but without unnecessary injury to the public or the rights of private property." And this cause having come on to be finally heard pursuant to the order or decree of this Court, made and entered herein on August 3, 1911, on the mandate of the Supreme Court of the United States as aforesaid, The American Tobacco Company and the other defendants herein (except United Cigar Stores Company, The Imperial Tobacco Company (of Great Britain and Ireland), Limited, and R. P. Richardson, Jr., & Company, Incorporated), filed in this Court, on October 16, 1911, a petition proposing and embodying a plan or method of dissolving the combination, and of recreating out of the elements now composing it a new condition in harmony with, and not repugnant to, the law. Due notice was given to the parties hereto that the hearing on the said petition would be had on October 30, 1911, in Room 124 of the Federal Building, in New York City; and thereafter, to wit: on the 19th day of October, 1911, The Imperial Tobacco Company (of Great Britain and Ireland), Limited, filed a petition.

At the time and place aforesaid, the plaintiff filed answers to the said petitions, embodying proposed modifications of, and additions to, the plan proposed in said petition of The American Tobacco Company and other defendants. The parties having been heard by counsel, and certain of the modifications of said plan included in the answer of the plaintiff not being opposed by the proponents of said plan, and others of said modifications included in said answer having been disposed of by this Court in its opinions delivered after said hearing;

NOW, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all the defendants—except Welford C. Reed, who died before the final hearing—heretofore became parties to and engaged in the combination assailed in the pleadings, which "in and of itself, as well as each and all of the elements composing it, whether corporate or individual, whether considered collectively or separately," is "in restraint of trade and an attempt to monopolize, and a monopolization within the first and second sections of the Anti-Trust Act," and which should be dissolved and a new condition brought about in harmony with and not repugnant to the law, either as a consequence of the action of this Court in determining an issue or in accepting a plan agreed upon.

AND, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that said plan as modified by the consent of the parties, or through the action of this Court as aforesaid, is as follows, to wit:

DISSOLUTION OF AMSTERDAM SUPPLY COMPANY.

Amsterdam Supply Company is a company engaged in the business of purchasing for a commission or brokerage, supplies, other than leaf tobacco, its principal customers being defendant corporations herein. It has $235,000 at par of stock, all held in various amounts by certain corporation defendants, one or the other of your Petitioners, and a surplus of $127,058.74.

It is proposed that Amsterdam Supply Company be dissolved, converting its assets into cash and distributing them to its stockholders.

B.

Under the contracts of September 27, 1902, The Imperial Tobacco Company (of Great Britain and Ireland), Limited, and certain of its directors agreed not to engage in the business of manufacturing or selling tobacco in the United States; The American Tobacco Company and the American Cigar Company and certain of their directors agreed not to engage in the business of manufacturing or selling tobacco in Great Britain and Ireland; and The American Tobacco Company, American Cigar Company and The Imperial Tobacco Company agreed not to engage in the business of manufacturing or selling tobacco in countries other than Great Britain and Ireland and the United States. Under the provisions of these contracts British-American Tobacco Company, Limited, was organized and took over the export businesses of The American Tobacco Company and The Imperial Tobacco Company, with factories, materials and supplies.

It is proposed that the covenants herein just described, as well as all covenants restricting the right of any company or individual in the combination to buy, manufacture or sell tobacco or its products, be rescinded by the affirmative action of the respective parties thereto who are parties to this suit, except such of said covenants, whether or not contained in the contracts of September 27, 1902, as (a), relate wholly to business in foreign countries and are covenants the benefit whereof has been assigned or transferred to other parties; or (b), are covenants exclusively between foreign corporations and relating wholly to business in or between foreign countries; and that the said contracts of September 27, 1902, be altogether terminated so far as they impose any obligations upon any of the parties thereto to furnish or to refrain from furnishing manufactured tobaccos to any party, each company to treat as its own, but only to the extent provided for in said contracts, all brands and trade-marks which by said contracts it was given the right to manufacture and sell, the said rights having been perpetual and constituting in effect a conveyance of the brands and trade-marks used for the countries in which they were so used by each of said companies as aforesaid.

C.

ABROGATION OF DOMESTIC RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS.

It is proposed that covenants given by vendor corporations, partnerships or individuals, or by stockholders of vendor corporations, to vendee corporations defendants herein, not to engage in the tobacco business or any other business in any way embraced in the combination, be terminated so that all such covenantors shall be at liberty to engage in the business of buying, manufacturing and dealing in tobacco and its products just as if such covenants had not been made.

D.

Disintegration of Accessory Companies.

The Conley Foil Company:

The Conley Foil Company has a capital stock of $825,000 at par, all of one class, of which The American Tobacco Company owns $495,000 at par, the balance being held by persons not defendants nor connected with defendants. It is engaged in the business of manufacturing tin foil, a product used largely by tobacco manufacturers, but having other uses as well. The Conley Foil Company has a plant in New York City, and it owns all the stock and bonds of The Johnston Tin Foil and Metal Company, which has a plant in St. Louis. The value of the output for the year 1910 of The Conley Foil Company was $1,780,526.85, with a net profit of $273,299.82, and The Johnston Tin Foil and Metal Company had an output for the year 1910 of the value of $676,520.05, and net profits of $66,255.16. On December 31, 1910, The Conley Foil Company had tangible assets (excluding its securities of The Johnston Tin Foil and Metal Company ($1,215,321, and The Johnston Tin Foil and Metal Company had assets of the value of $379,802.11. The Conley Foil Company has a surplus exceeding the value of the securities of The Johnston Tin Foil and Metal Company.

It is proposed that The Conley Foil Company cancel the bonds of The Johnston Tin Foil and Metal Company, held by it, to-wit: $100,000 par value: and distribute to its stockholders its holdings of stock of The Johnston Tin Foil and Metal Company, to-wit: 3,000 shares, all of one class.

The American Tobacco Company, being a stockholder of The Conley Foil Company, will participate in this distribution, and will in turn distribute its dividend, as well as its stock in The Conley Foil Company, to its common stockholders as hereinafter set forth.

MacAndrews & Forbes Company.

MacAndrews & Forbes Company is a company having a common capital stock of $3,000,000 at par, of which The American Tobacco Company owns $2,112,900 at par, the balance being held by persons not defendants nor connected with defendants (except less than 3⅓% of the common stock held by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.), and $3,758,300 at par of six per cent. non-voting preferred stock, of which The American Tobacco Company holds $750,000 at par, the balance being held by persons not defendants nor connected with defendants. It is engaged in the production of licorice paste, with two plants, one at Camden, New Jersey, and the other at Baltimore, Maryland. It had tangible assets, December 31, 1910, of the value of $5,683,824.89 (including $2,118,448.36, licorice root, with plants for its collection in foreign countries), and its sales for the year 1910 were of the value of $4,427,023.44. MacAndrews & Forbes Company succeeded to the business MacAndrews & Forbes, a partnership, who were pioneers in this country in the production of licorice paste, and who had, for many years before any acquisitions of other business, and before they had any connection with the other defendants herein, more than fifty per cent. of all the licorice paste business of the United States.

It is proposed that a new corporation be organized called the J. S. Young Company, and that it shall acquire the Baltimore plant of MacAndrews & Forbes Company with the assets used therein and in connection therewith, of a total value of $1,000,000, and the brands of licorice paste manufactured in said Baltimore plant; that it issue in payment therefor, with the goodwill connected therewith, $1,000,000 at par of seven per cent. preferred non-voting stock, and $1,000,000 at par of common stock; that MacAndrews & Forbes Company distribute the common stock of the J. S. Young Company as a dividend to its common stockholders, charging the amount thereof to its surplus account; that MacAndrews & Forbes Company offer to its preferred stockholders proportionately to exchange the seven per cent. preferred stock of the J. S. Young Company at par for their preferred stock of MacAndrews & Forbes Company; that so far as this preferred stock of MacAndrews & Forbes Company is thus exchanged, it be retired; that so far as this preferred stock of the J. S. Young Company is not forthwith thus exchanged, MacAndrews & Forbes Company be enjoined from using it to exercise, or otherwise exercising or attempting to exercise, influence or control over the J. S. Young Company; and with the further provision that on or before January 1, 1915, the whole of this preferted stock of the J. S. Young Company, not theretofore taken out of the treasury of MacAndrews & Forbes Company by exchange as aforesaid, be disposed of by MacAndrews & Forbes Company.

This would give to MacAndrews & Forbes Company a licorice business, including Spanish licorice and powdered goods, of the net selling value, based upon the year 1910, of $2,514,184.64, of which $2,214,127.51 arise from sales of one brand, to wit, the old "Ship" brand. The J. S. Young Company, upon the basis of the business for the year 1910, would have an output of the net selling value of $1,201,109.86.

The American Tobacco Company being a holder of the common stock of MacAndrews & Forbes Company, will participate in the distribution above provided and will in turn distribute its dividend, as well as its stock in MacAndrews & Forbes Company, to its common stockholders as hereinafter set forth.

AMERICAN SNUFF COMPANY.

American Snuff Company is a manufacturer of snuff. It holds all of the stock of De Voe Snuff Company, to wit, $50,000 at par; and one-half, to wit, $26,000 at par, of the stock of National Snuff Company. It owns no other interest in any company manufacturing or selling snuff.

It is proposed that there be organized two new snuff companies, one to be called the George W. Helme Company and the other Weyman-Bruton Company, and that American Snuff Company convey to these two companies respectively factories, with the brands manufactured in them, as follows: to the George W. Helme Company the factories at Helmetta, New Jersey, and Yorklyn, Delaware, except Factory No. 5; to Weyman-Bruton Company the factories at Chicago and Nashville, also all the stock of De Voe Snuff Company, and the one-half of the stock of National Snuff Company held by American Snuff Company. Based upon the business for the year 1910 and the assets at the end of the year, with proper provision for leaf, materials, cash and book accounts for the two vendee companies, this would leave the three companies equipped as follows:

Manufacturing Tangible Assets.

American Snuff Company	$5,075,969.72 (a)
George W. Helme Company	4,909,000.40
Weyman-Bruton Company	3,691.588.20

Sales Value During 1910.

American Snuff Company	$5,520,422.15
George W. Helme Company	4,494,556.66
Weyman-Bruton Company	4,297,486.71

Net Income.

American Snuff Company	$1,591,2~0.49 (a)
George W. Helme Company	1,259,2~0.98
Weyman-Bruton Company	1,293,759.39

Each of these vendee corporations will pay for the property and business conveyed to it by the issue of $4,000,000 at par of seven per cent. voting preferred stock, and $4,000,000 at par of common stock. American Snuff Company will thus receive the $16,000,000 at par of these stocks into its treasury and will distribute to its common stockholders, as a dividend, the common stock aggregating $8,000,000, to be charged to its surplus account. American Snuff Company will offer to its preferred stockholders proportionately to exchange these seven per cent. preferred stocks of the George W. Helme Company and the Weyman-Bruton Company for their preferred stock of American Snuff Company at par. So much of the preferred stock of American Snuff Company as is thus exchanged, will be retired. As to so much of the preferred stocks of the George W. Helme Company and the Weyman-Bruton Company as is not forthwith thus exchanged, American Snuff Company to be enjoined from voting it, or using it to exercise, or otherwise exercising, or attempting to exercise, influence or control over the George W. Helme Company or the Weyman-Bruton Company; and on or before January 1, 1915, all of these preferred stocks of the George W. Helme Company and the Weyman-Bruton Company not theretofore taken out of the treasury of American Snuff Company by exchange as aforesaid, to be disposed of by American Snuff Company.

(a) American Snuff Company holds securities not connected with the snuff business, to-wit: stock and bonds of The American Tobacco Company, preferred stock of American Cigar Company, aggregating in book value $2,550,216.69, upon which American Snuff Company received in interest and dividends during the year 1910 $176,680. It is proposed that American Snuff Company sell or otherwise dispose of these securities within three years, and that in the meantime they be held under an injunction as is provided in this paragraph with respect to securities of the George W. Helme Company and Weyman-Bruton Company to be temporarily held by it. It also owns all to-wit $100,000 at par of the stock of Garrett Real Estate Co., which will be dissolved and liquidated.

The American Tobacco Company, being a holder of the common stock of American Snuff Company, will participate in the distribution above provided, and will, in turn, distribute its dividend, as well as its stock in American Snuff Company, including that to be acquired from P. Lorillard Company to its common stockholders as hereinafter set forth.

AMERICAN STOGIE COMPANY.

American Stogie Company is a corporation whose only asset is all of the issued stock of Union-American Cigar Company, which latter company has cigar factories located at Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Lancaster and Newark. Its total production, based upon business for the year 1910, is only 1.58 per cent. of the entire production of cigars in the United States in volume, and, as these Petitioners believe, about the same percentage in value. American Stogie Company has $976,000 at par of seven per cent. cumulative preferred stock, of which American Cigar Company owns $40,000 at par, and none of the other defendants own any; it has $10,879,000 at par of common stock, of which American Cigar Company owns $7,303,775 at par, and none of the other defendants own any. There are accumulated and unpaid dividends on the preferred stock to the amount of $399,000 as of December 31, 1910.

It is proposed that American Stogie Company dissolve, with leave granted to the trustees in dissolution to either convert the assets into cash, and distribute them among the stockholders according to their rights, or to effect such reorganization as they may be able to effect, provided, that in either event there shall be a separation into at least two different ownerships of the factories and businesses now owned and operated by Union-American Cigar Company. If the dissolution is followed by a conversion of the assets of American Stogie Company into cash, American Cigar Company will take such cash as it may receive into its treasury; if it receives upon such dissolution securities of cigar manufacturing concerns, it will distribute such as a dividend to its common stockholders, to be charged to its surplus as hereinafter set forth.

AMERICAN CIGAR COMPANY.

American Cigar Company is a manufacturer of cigars. It has various factories of its own, and it owns all or a part of the stock of several companies engaged in the manufacture of cigars, all of which companies have been organized by it and which have received from it conveyances of part of its business, operating in this way as separate corporations for trade purposes. Among these companies is Federal Cigar Company.

American Cigar Company also owns a part of the stock of Havana Tobacco Company, which controls factories manufacturing cigars in Havana; and a part of the stock of Porto Rican-American Tobacco Company, engaged in the manufacture of cigars and cigarettes in Porto Rico; and half of the stock of Porto Rican Leaf Tobacco Company, engaged in growing tobacco in Porto Rico.

American Cigar Company itself uses large quantities of Porto Rican grown leaf. Neither American Cigar Company nor any of the companies in which it is interested except Havana Tobacco Company and Porto Rican-American Tobacco Company, is engaged in the manufacture of cigars outside of the United States.

American Cigar Company, including with its production the production of companies of which it owns in whole or in part the stock, has, in volume, based on the business for the year 1910, 13.36 per cent. of the cigar business of the United States, and in value, as your Petitioners believe, substantially the same percentage. Havana Tobacco Company has, directly or indirectly, control of 24.06 per cent. of the total production of cigars in Cuba; 46.00 per cent. of the total exportation of cigars from Cuba to all countries of the world, including the United States; and 38.15 per cent. of the total exportation of cigars from Cuba to the United States.

It is proposed that American Cigar Company dispose of properties belonging to it, and thus disintegrate its business, as follows:

(a) That it sell to The American Tobacco Company for cash its stock, being all thereof, of Federal Cigar Company, at a fair price, to wit: $3,965,616.05;

(b) That it sell to The American Tobacco Company, for cash, the stock it owns of Porto Rican-American Tobacco Company, to wit: $657,600 at par, at a fair price, to wit: $350 per share, or $2,301,600;

(c) That American Cigar Company dispose of any interest in American Stogie Company by receiving cash proceeds of its stock in dissolution thereof, if American Stogie Company upon dissolution converts its assets into cash; or by distributing as a dividend to its common stockholders out of its surplus the securities which it receives upon the dissolution of American Stogie Company, if it receives such.

All stocks thus to be acquired by The American Tobacco Company from American Cigar Company are to be disposed of by The American Tobacco Company, as hereinafter set out.

DISTRIBUTION BY THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY OF STOCKS OWNED OR TO BE ACQUIRED BY IT.

IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION OF STOCKS.

The American Tobacco Company will buy from P. Lorillard Company for cash at par, the 11,247 shares of the preferred stock of American Snuff Company held by P. Lorillard Company, and will receive, as the sole common stockholder of P. Lorillard Company, and by way of dividends 34,594 shares of the common stock of American Snuff Company held by P. Lorillard Company.

The American Tobacco Company will distribute among its common stockholders by way of dividends, and to be charged to its surplus, all of its securities of the following described classes, whether now owned by it or bought by it from American Cigar Company, as hereinbefore set forth, or bought by it from P. Lorillard Company, as just hereinbefore set forth, or received by it by way of dividends from any of the accessory companies defendant, as hereinbefore set forth, to wit:

American Snuff Company common stock;
American Snuff Company preferred stock;
George W. Helme Company common stock;
Weyman-Bruton Company common stock;
MacAndrews & Forbes Company common stock;
J. S. Young Company common stock;
The Conley Foil Company stock;
The Johnston Tin Foil and Metal Company stock;
R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company stock;
Corporation of United Cigar Stores stock;

British-American Tobacco Company, Limited, ordinary shares ;

Porto Rican-American Tobacco Company stock ;

American Stogie Company stock (or what is received by way of dividends from American Cigar Company upon dissolution of American Stogie Company).

Including the amount to be paid to American Cigar Company and P. Lorillard Company for such of these securities as are to be acquired by The American Tobacco Company from them respectively, and excluding those to be acquired by way of dividends, and which, therefore, do not affect the surplus of The American Tobacco Company, never having been set up on its books, these securities had a book value as of December 31, 1910, of $35,011,865.03. The earning capacity of all the above securities thus to be distributed, based upon the results of the year 1910, is $9,860,410.76, though not all thereof was distributed as dividends.

DEFERRED DISPOSITION OF STOCKS.

The American Tobacco Company will sell or otherwise dispose of, or distribute by way of dividends to its common stockholders out of its surplus at the time existing, before January 1, 1915, all of its holdings of the following securities:

British-American Tobacco Company, Limited, non-voting preference shares ;

The Imperial Tobacco Company (of Great Britain and Ireland), Limited, ordinary shares ;

Corporation of United Cigars Stores bonds ;

MacAndrews & Forbes Company non-voting preferred stock.

During the time these securities are left in the treasury of The American Tobacco Company, The American Tobacco Company to be enjoined from voting any thereof that under the terms thereof might be voted, or using any thereof to exercise, or otherwise exercising or attempting to exercise, influence or control over the said companies which issued the said securities respectively, and from gaining possession of any of the said companies by buying in at a foreclosure had under any of the securities, for any default with respect thereto or otherwise.

RESOURCES AND CAPITALIZATION OF COMPANIES AND PROVISIONS FOR EXCHANGING AND RETIRING SECURITIES OF AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY.

The American Tobacco Company has securities issued and outstanding as follows:

6% bonds	$52,882,650
4% bonds (including outstanding 4% bonds of Consol. Tobacco Co.)	51,354,100
6% preferred stock	78,689,100
Common stock	40,242,400

The American Tobacco Company in October, 1904, immediately after the merger, had an outstanding issue of its own four per cent. bonds and the Consolidated Tobacco Company four per cent. bonds which it assumed, amounting to $78,689,100, but it has purchased on the market and retired $27,335,000 at par of these four per cent. bonds, charging the amount thus expended to surplus. The six per cent. bonds and four per cent. bonds aforesaid are what are ordinarily known as debenture bonds, and are issued under a trust indenture which imposes a general charge on the property, income and earnings of the company in favor, first, of the six per cont. bonds, and, second, of the four per cent. bonds. The American Tobacco Company, after the reduction of the surplus through the acquisition by it of four per cent. bonds as aforesaid, had on December 31, 1910, a surplus of $61,119,991.63, which will be increased by the surplus earnings of the current year. The distribution of securities herein provided for to be forthwith made. would diminish the said surplus by $35,011,865.03, the book value of securities to be so distributed. This book value is less than actual value, but in view of the fact that none of the assets of The American Tobacco Company are overvalued, the advance of the book value of the securities to be distributed as hereinbefore set forth to their actual value, would operate at the same time to increase the surplus of the Company, and so its surplus, after such distribution, would remain just the same as though the advance to actual value had not been made on the books of the Company.

The properties to be conveyed to the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company, based upon conditions as of December 31, 1910, the last completed year, including in such conveyances the proper and proportionate storage houses, leaf tobacco, supplies and materials and cash, but without anything for value of brands, trademarks, formulæ, recipes and goodwill, but including stocks of companies, are of the value of $30,607,-261.96 to Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company, and $28,091,-748.86 to P. Lorillard Company. So far as these conditions shall be changed before the day of the conveyance, any deficiency is to be made good in cash, so that these two companies will have said amounts in tangible assets, as aforesaid, useful, and such as have been used, in the manufacture of the brands to be conveyed to them respectively, and cash. The American Tobacco Company will be left with tangible assets, including stocks of companies employed in manufacturing tobacco and its products, cash and bills and accounts receivable, of the value of $53,408,498.94, as of December 31, 1910. The profits earned during the year 1910 on the brands and businesses to be conveyed by The American Tobacco Company to Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company amounted to $7,468,172.02, and the profits on the brands and businesses to be conveyed by The American Tobacco Company to P. Lorillard Company amounted to $5,264,729.38.

It is proposed that the value of the brands, trademarks, recipes, formulæ and goodwill to be sold to each of these companies, be determined by their earning capacity, based upon the results for the year 1910, so that each shall have an earning capacity of 11.02 per cent. per annum upon its total property, including both tangible property and brand value and goodwill. Upon this basis the consideration to be paid by the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company will be $30,607,261.96, value of tangible assets as above stated, and $36,840,237.04, value of brands, trademarks, recipes, formulæ and goodwill, making a total of $67,447,499; and the consideration to be paid by the P. Lorillard Company will be $28,091,748.86 value of tangible assets as above stated, and $19,460,752.14, value of brands, trademarks, recipes, formulæ and goodwill, making a total $47,552,501. The brands, trademarks, recipes, formulæ and goodwill of The American Tobacco Company, on December 31, 1910, were of the book value of $101,324,964.07. The payments for brand value, etc., to The American Tobacco Company to be made by Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company as aforesaid, makes an aggregate of $56,300,989.18, and would thus leave the book value of brands, trademarks, recipes, formulæ and goodwill retained by The American Tobacco Company at $45,023,974.89, which added to the $53,408,498.94 of tangible manufacturing assets to be retained by The American Tobacco Company, will make the total book value of manufacturing property to be retained by that Company $98,432,473.83, upon which its earnings, based upon the results for the year 1910, would be $11,369,809.82, or 11.55 per cent.

The Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and the P. Lorillard Company would pay for these conveyances, therefore, the aggregate as aforesaid, to wit:

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company	$67,447,499
P. Lorillard Company	47,552,501
Aggregating	$115,000,000

or each with its earnings on the business for the year 1910 so capitalized that said earnings represent 11.02 per cent. upon the capital.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company will issue securities to cover such capitalization in the aggregate as follows: To an amount equal to one-half of the outstanding six per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company, that is, $26,441,325 at par in seven per cent. bonds; to an amount equal to one-half of the outstanding four per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company, that is, $25,677,050 at par in five per cent. bonds; to an amount equal to one-third of the outstanding preferred stock of The American Tobacco Company, that is, $26,229,700 at par, in seven per cent. cumulative voting preferred stock; which, upon liquidation of the Company, shall be paid at par with accrued unpaid dividends, before any amount shall be paid to common stock, with balance of assets distributable ratably to the common stock; and the balance of said $115,000,000, that is, $36,651,925 in common stock; the seven per cent. bonds and the five per cent. bonds to mature at the time fixed respectively for the maturity of the six per cent. bonds and the four per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company now outstanding, and to be issued under an indenture of substantially like tenor and terms with the present indenture of The American Tobacco Company under which its six per cent. bonds and four per cent. bonds were issued, the seven per cent. bonds to have priority in charge over the five per cent. bonds in the same way that the six per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company have priority of charge over the four per cent. bonds. Thus the capitalization of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company will be as follows:

	Liggett & Myers.	Lorillard.	Total.
7% bonds	$15,507,837	$10,933,488	$26,441,325
5% bonds	15,059,589	10,617,461	25,677,050
7% preferred stock	15,383,719	10,845,981	26,229,700
Common stock	21,496,354	15,155,571	36,651,925
	$67,447,499	$47,552,501	$115,000,000

All of these securities of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and the P. Lorillard Company to be turned over to The American Tobacco Company in payment of the purchase price for the factories, plants, brands and businesses and capital stocks of tobacco manufacturing corporations so to be conveyed to Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company respectively as hereinbefore set out.

These securities will be disposed of by The American Tobacco Company as follows:

The common stock will be offered for cash at par to the holders of the common stock of The American Tobacco Company in proportion to their holdings, and any not purchased by the person thus entitled thereto shall be sold to persons other than the individual defendants, to the end that such offer of common stock of the two new companies to the common stockholders of The American Tobacco Company shall not be used by the individual defendants to increase their ownership therein beyond the proportion of their holdings of the common stock of The American Tobacco Company.

To each holder of the six per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company, an offer shall be made to acquire his bonds for cancellation, and to give in exchange therefor, as to one-half thereof, new seven per cent. bonds of Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company at par, and in payment for the other half thereof, cash at the rate of $120 and accrued interest for each $100 face value of the bonds.

To each holder of the four per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company, an offer shall be made to acquire his bonds for cancellation, and to give in exchange therefor, as to one-half thereof, new five per cent. bonds of Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company at par, and in payment for the other half thereof, cash at the rate of $96 and accrued interest for each $100 face value of the bonds.

To each holder of the preferred stock of The American Tobacco Company, an offer shall be made to acquire one-third of his stock for cancellation in exchange for an equal amount at par of Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company.

On account of the larger capitalization of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company as compared with the P. Lorillard Company, each class of the new securities will issue in the proportion of 58.65 per cent. thereof of Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company securities and 41.35 per cent. thereof of P.

Lorillard Company securities. The stocks will be issued in shares of $100, and coupon bonds in denominations of $1,000, and registered bonds in larger denominations, and in denominations of $100 and $50, and in actual issue fractions will be eliminated.

The common stocks of the two Companies aforesaid are to be sold as above set out prior to March 1, 1912, with three years to be allowed for the retirement of the bonds and preferred stock of The American Tobacco Company, as above set out. Pending such, the said seven per cent. bonds, five per cent. bonds, and seven per cent. preferred stocks of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and the P. Lorillard Company, together with an amount in cash, or in securities owned by The American Tobacco Company, at their book value, or partly in cash and partly in such securities, equal to the amounts required if all such sales and exchanges are made, will be deposited with the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, the trustee in the indenture under which the six per cent. bonds and the four per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company are issued, as the agency to effect the purchase and exchange. Such deposit will be made, not to secure, nor create a trust fund for the bonds, but for the purpose of sequestrating and taking from the control of The American Tobacco Company the securities and cash so deposited. During the time of such deposit, the securities shall be in the name of, as well as in the custody of, said Trust Company, with any voting rights attaching thereto, but The American Tobacco Company shall receive from the Trust Company all dividends and interest collected by it on account of such securities ; and The American Tobacco Company shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sell, at such price as it may determine, and direct the delivery of any of such securities (except the securities of Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company), the consideration therefor to go into the hands of said Trust Company ; or to withdraw any of such securities (except the securities of Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company) for the purpose of distribution among its common stockholders, if its surplus at the time permits ; or to substitute other securities of like book value for the securities so deposited (except as to the securities of Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company); or to alter the relative proportion of cash and securities; it being the intent of this provision that there shall be sequestrated from the control of The American Tobacco Company, all the securities of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company and P. Lorillard Company, and an additional amount of cash or other securities equal, upon the purchase basis aforesaid, to the value of the four per cent. bonds and the six per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company at the time outstanding. At the end of the three years, if there are any of such securities of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company or P. Lorillard Company in the hands of such trust company undisposed of by such exchange as aforesaid, then The American Tobacco Company shall apply to this Court for an order as to the disposition thereof. Nothing contained in this provision, and nothing done under this provision, shall be construed as providing for the creation of, or as creating, any lien or security on anything deposited with the trust company in favor of the six per cent. bonds or the four per cent. bonds of The American Tobacco Company outstanding, or otherwise.

G.

VOTING RIGHTS TO PREFERRED STOCK.

By proper amendment of the certificate of incorporation of The American Tobacco Company, the preferred stock will be given full voting rights.

H.

CERTAIN INCIDENTAL PROVISIONS.

P. Lorillard Company is a New Jersey company, with $3,000,000 of Common stock, all of which is owned by The American Tobacco Company, and $2,000,000 of eight per cent. preferred stock. Of this preferred stock The American Tobacco Company holds $1,596,100 at par, and there is held by others $403,900 at par. Under the laws of New Jersey the present P. Lorillard Company may be dissolved by the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding stock, and upon such dissolution the preferred stock is entitled to be paid at par, the balance of the assets going to the common stock. In view of the fact, however, that the preferred stock of the present P. Lorillard Company is an eight per cent. preferred stock with abundant assets and earnings to make the principal and income secure, it is deemed fair to the holders of this outstanding $403,900 of preferred stock that they be given an opportunity to take, at their option, either cash at par, which they are legally entitled to, or the seven per cent. preferred stock of the proposed new P. Lorillard Company. As the preferred stock of the new P. Lorillard Company is to be a seven per cent. preferred stock, the holders of said $403,900 of said present preferred stock will be offered stock of the new company at the rate of $114.25 for each share. It is therefore proposed that the new P. Lorillard Company provide for an additional amount of preferred stock sufficient to take care of $403,900 preferred stock, on that basis, to wit: $114.25 in new seven per cent. preferred stock for each $100 of said stock, amounting to $461,600 at par of preferred stock in addition to that set out hereinbefore. In view of the fact that in the statements hereinbefore made as to earnings of the P. Lorillard Company there is included only such part of the earnings of the present P. Lorillard Company as accrued to the proportion of its stock held by The American Tobacco Company, this increase of preferred stock would increase proportionately the profits of the P. Lorillard Company, and does not derange any of the figures hereinbefore given, or given in any of the Exhibits hereto and hereinafter referred to.

American Snuff Company manufactures and sells a brand of snuff called "Garrett," which has a large sale in the Southern and Southwestern sections of the country. Originally this brand was manufactured at Yorklyn, Delaware, and in part packed in Philadelphia. Several years ago American Snuff Company determined, on account of freight rate conditions, to manufacture this brand at Clarksville, Tennessee, and to pack it at Memphis, Tennessee, and that the factories at Yorklyn, Delaware, should be given up to the manufacture of other brands. It has yet, though, been unable to produce in Clarksville, Tennessee, goods similar to the goods heretofore and now made by it at Yorklyn, Delaware, although the experiment is still in progress, and with hope of success. Under the plan hereinbefore outlined, the brand "Garrett" snuff is allotted to American Snuff Company, and the factories other than one factory at Yorklyn, Delaware, are allotted to George W. Helme Company; your Petitioners pray that in the approval and adoption by this Court of this plan, American Snuff Company and George W. Helme Company be permitted to manufacture brands the one for the other, for a period not exceeding one year from March 1, 1912, each company paying to the other as consideration for such manufacture, the cost thereof plus five per cent.; the necessity of paying five per cent. above cost is sufficient inducement to each company to manufacture its own goods as soon as American Snuff Company is able to manufacture "Garrett" snuff of the requisite character and kind in its Clarkville factory, thus leaving the Yorklyn factories, other than No. 5, for the manufacture by the George W. Helme Company of its own brands.

This Court, having heard the parties as directed by the Supreme Court of the United States, it is further ascertained and determined, and ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that said plan hereinabove set forth is a plan or method which, taken with the injunctive provisions hereinafter set forth, will dissolve the combination heretofore adjudged to be illegal in this cause, and will re-create out of the elements now composing it a new condition which will be honestly in harmony with, and not repugnant to, the law, and without unnecessary injury to the public or the rights of private property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said plan as hereinabove set forth be, and it is hereby, approved by this Court, and the defendants herein are respectively directed to proceed forthwith to carry the same into effect.

The necessities of the situation in the judgment of this Court requiring the extension of the period for carrying into execution said plan to a further time not to exceed sixty days from December 30, 1911,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendants be allowed until February 28, 1912, to carry said plan into execution.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendants, their officers, directors, servants, agents and employees be, and they are hereby, severally enjoined and restrained as follows:

1. By causing the conveyance of the factories, plants, brands or business of any of the fourteen corporations among which the properties and businesses now in combination are to be distributed, to-wit: The American Tobacco Company, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company, P. 2. By making any express or implied agreement or arrangement together or one with another like those adjudged illegal in this cause, relative to the control or management of any of said fourteen corporations, or the price or terms of purchase, or of sale, of tobacco or any of its products, or the supplies or other products dealt with in connection with the tobacco business, or relative to the purchase, sale, transportation or manufacture of tobacco, or its products or supplies or other products dealt with as aforesaid, by any of the parties hereto, which will have a like effect in restraint of commerce among the states, in the territories and with foreign nations to that of the combination, the operation of which is enjoined in this cause; or by making any agreement or arrangement of any kind with any other of such corporations under which trade or business is apportioned between such corporations, in respect either to customers or localities.

3. By any of said fourteen corporations retaining or employing the same clerical organization, or keeping the same office or offices, as any other of said corporations.

4. By any of said fourteen corporations retaining or holding capital stock in any other corporation any part of whose stock is also retained and held by any other of said corporations; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not apply to the holding by the Porto Rican-American Tobacco Company and American Cigar Company of stock in Porto Rican Leaf Tobacco Company, nor shall it apply to the holding of stock of the National Snuff Company, Limited, by Weyman-Bruton Company and British-American Tobacco Company, Limited.

5. 6. By any of said fourteen corporations refusing to sell to to any jobber any brand of any tobacco product manufactured by it except upon condition that such jobber shall purchase from the vendor some other brand or product also manufactured and sold by it; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not be construed to apply to what are known as "combination orders" under which some brand or product may be offered to a jobber or dealer at a reduced price on condition that he purchase a given quantity of some other brand or product.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that during a period of five years from the date hereof, each of said fourteen corporations hereinbefore named, its officers, directors, agents, servants and employees, are hereby enjoined and restrained as follows :

1. None of the said fourteen corporations shall have any officer or director who is also an officer or director in any other of said corporations.

2. None of said fourteen corporations shall retain or employ the same agent or agents for the purchase in the United States of tobacco leaf or other raw material, or for the sale in the United States of tobacco or other products, as that of any other of said corporation.

3. None of said fourteen corporations shall directly or indirectly acquire any stock in any other of said corporations, or purchase or acquire any of the factories, plants brands or business of any other of said corporations, or make loans or otherwise extend financial aid to any other of said corporations.

The provisions of this decree shall apply only to trade and commerce in or between the several states and territories and the District of Columbia, and trade and commerce between the United States and foreign nations.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that British-American Tobacco Company, Limited and the Imperial Tobacco Company (of Great Britain and Ireland), Limited, shall not act as agent for each other, nor employ a common agent, for the purchase of leaf tobacco in the United States, and neither of said two companies shall unite with any of the said fourteen corporations among which the properties and businesses now in the combination are to be distributed, in the employment of a common agent for the purchase of tobacco leaf in the United States.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each of the twenty-nine individual defendants in this suit be enjoined and restrained from at any time within three years from the date of this decree, acquiring, owning or holding, directly or indirectly, any stock, or any legal or equitable interest in any stock in any one of said fourteen corporations, except British-American Tobacco Company, Limited, in excess of the amount to which he will be entitled under the provisions of the plan when the same shall have been carried out as proposed as the present owner of the amount of stocks in said several companies shown by the affidavits of said several defendants filed herein on the 16th day of November, 1911; provided, however, that any of said defendants may, notwithstanding this prohibition, acquire from any other or others of said defendants, or in case of death from their estates, any of the stock held by such other defendant or defendants in any of said corporations.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the new companies whose organization is provided for in the plan hereinabove set forth, to wit: Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company, P. Lorillard Company, George W. Helme Company, Weyman-Bruton Company and J. S. Young Company, shall, after their formation and by appropriate proceedings, be made parties defendant to this cause and subject to the provisions of this decree and bound by the injunctions herein granted.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that any party hereto may make application to the Court for such orders and directions as may be necessary or proper in relation to the carrying out of said plan, and the provisions of this decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the costs of this action shall be paid by the defendants other than R. P. Richardson, Jr., & Company, Incorporated, as to whom the suit has heretofore been dismissed, and the payment by the defendant The American Tobacco Company of the reasonable costs and counsel fees of the committees organized for the protection of the six per cent. bonds, four per cent. bonds and preferred stock of The American Tobacco Company is hereby approved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendants The American Tobacco Company, MacAndrews & Forbes Company, American Snuff Company, and each of them and their and each of their officers, directors, servants, agents and employees, be severally enjoined and restrained as in said plan set forth, from voting stocks, exercising influence or control over other companies or gaining possession of other companies through the use of securities temporarily held by them respectively under said plan in each and every case in which it is provided in and by the said plan that any of said three last named defendants shall be so enjoined.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that such books and papers of the defendants, The American Tobacco Company and S. Anargyros, or either of them, as relate to the suit of The Ludington Cigarette Machine Company vs. S. Anargyros and The American Tobacco Company, or the subject matter thereof or any part thereof, be preserved by the said defendants respectively until after the accounting, if any shall take place in said suit, and said suit be finally determined and ended.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that jurisdiction of this cause is retained by this Court for the purpose of making such other and further orders and decrees, if any, as may become necessary for carrying out the mandate of the Supreme Court.

D. 1911, before the three Circuit Judges of the Third Judicial Circuit, in the District Court of the United States for the District of Delaware, in the presence of George W. Wickersham, Attorney-General of the United States, and James Scarlet, William A. Glasgow, Jr., and Victor N. Button, for the remaining defendants, and this Court by said interlocutory decree having consented to hear the petitioner and the defendants herein as to the nature of the injunction which shall be granted herein and as to a plan for dissolving the combination found herein by said Court to exist, to the end that this Court may ascertain and determine upon a plan or method for such dissolution which will not deprive the defendants of the opportunity to recreate out of the elements now composing said combination a new condition which shall be honestly in harmony with and not repugnant to the law, and the Court having heard argument of counsel herein and having duly considered the matter, and it appearing to the Court that the petitioner, the United States of America, is entitled to the relief hereinafter mentioned:

4. That should the defendants find it impossible to perfect the details of said plan on or before the said fifteenth day of December, 1912, they may have leave to apply to the Court for further time to carry out said plan.

5. That until said plan is carried into operation and effect, the said twenty-seven defendants hereinbefore named in paragraph two of this decree, are, and each of them is, and the agents and servants of them are jointly and severally hereby enjoined from doing any acts or act which shall in any wise further extend or enlarge the field of operations, or the power of the aforesaid combination.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said twenty-seven (27) defendants, their stockholders, officers, directors, servants, agents and employees be and they are hereby severally enjoined and restrained as follows :

From continuing or carrying into further effect after said fifteenth day of December, 1912, the combination adjudged illegal in this suit, and from entering into or forming among themselves or with others any like combination or conspiracy, by any method or device whatsoever, the effect of which is or will be to restrain interstate commerce in explosives or to renew the unlawful monopoly of such commerce obtained and possessed by the defendants as adjudged herein, in violation of "An Act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful Restraints and Monopolies," approved July 2, 1890, and especially :

3. By offering or causing to be offered or making or causing to be made more favorable prices or terms of sale for the products manufactured by them or either of them to the customers of any rival manufacturer or manufacturers than they at the same time offer to make to their established trade, where the purpose is to unfairly cripple or drive out of business such rival manufacturer or manufacturers or otherwise unlawfully to restrain the trade and commerce of the United States in any of said products; provided, that no defendant is enjoined or restrained from making any price or prices in the sale of said products, or any thereof, to meet or to compete with prices made by any other defendant, or by any rival manufacturer; and provided, further, that nothing in this decree shall be taken in any respect to enjoin or restrain fair, free and open competition.

5. By either of said corporations doing business directly or indirectly under any other than its own corporate name or the name of a subsidiary corporation controlled by it; provided, however, that, in case of a subsidiary corporation, the controlling corporation shall cause the products of such subsidiary corporation which are sold in the United States and bear the name of the manufacturer to bear also a statement indicating the fact of such control.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said defendants cancel and annul:

(a) Agreement of October 2, 1902, between William Barclay Parsons, of the City of New York, and the Delaware Securities Company. Petitioner's Record, Exhibits, Volume 4, page 1984.

(b) Agreement of October 6, 1902, between H. deB. Parsons, of the City of New York, and the Delaware Securities Company. Petitioner's Record, Exhibits, Volume 4, page 1986.

(c) Agreement of the second day of October, 1902, between Schuyler L. Parsons, of the City of New York, and the Delaware Securities Company. Petitioner's Record, Exhibits, Volume 4, page 1988.

(d) A like and identical agreement made about the same date between J. A. Haskell and the Delaware Securities Company, described in Petitioner's Testimony, Volume 2, page 1012.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that during a period of five years from the date hereof each of said corporations, the E. I. duPont de Nemours Powder Company and said other two corporations, their stockholders, officers, directors, agents, servants and employees, be hereby enjoined and restrained as follows:

1. None of said corporations shall have any officer or director who is also an officer or director in any other of said corporations.

2. None of said corporations shall employ the same agent or agents for the sale in interstate commerce of explosives which might be sold in competition with each other; provided that any one of said corporations may sell its products on commission through a merchant or dealer who is similarly employed by either or both of said other corporations.

3. None of said corporations shall directly or indirectly acquire any stock in another of said corporations or purchase or acquire any of the factories, plants, brands or business of such other corporation.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that each and all of the individual defendants by this decree adjudged to be engaged in said combination, while holding stock in said two corporations and E. I. duPont deNemours Powder Company or any two thereof, be enjoined and restrained from at any time within three years from the date hereof acquiring, owning or holding, directly or indirectly, any stock or any legal or equitable interest in any stock in either of said two corporations to which said properties shall be transferred, in excess of the amount to which he may be entitled under the provisions of the plan herein mentioned when the same shall have been carried out as proposed; provided, however that any of said individual defendants may notwithstanding this prohibition acquire from any other or others of said defendants, or in case of death, from their estates, any of the stock held by such other defendant or defendants in said corporations and may acquire their proportions of any increase of stock.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that any new company or companies organized for the purpose of taking property under the provisions of this decree or otherwise, necessary to the carrying out of this plan, shall, after their formation and by appropriate proceedings, be made parties to this cause, and subject to the provisions of this decree and bound by the injunctions herein granted.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that any party hereto may make application to this Court for such orders and directions as may be necessary or proper in relation to the carrying out of such plan and the provisions of this decree.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the twenty-seven (27) defendants hereinabove mentioned, do pay to the United States Government its cost in this cause.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that jurisdiction of this cause is retained by this Court, for the purpose of making such other and further orders and decrees as may become necessary for carrying out the plan herein set forth.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that after the plan hereinabove mentioned shall have been carried into effect a report shall be made to this Court for its approval, setting out the manner in which said plan shall have been carried out.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY; THE OREGON SHORT LINE RAILROAD COMPANY; THE OREGON RAILROAD & NAVIGATION COMPANY; THE SAN PEDRO, LOS ANGELES & SALT LAKE RAILROAD COMPANY; THE ATCHISON, TOPEKA & SANTA FE RAILWAY COMPANY; THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY; NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY; GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY; THE FARMERS' LOAN & TRUST COMPANY; JACOB H. SCHIFF; OTTO H. KAHN; JAMES STILLMAN; HENRY C. FRICK; WILLIAM A. CLARK; AND ROBERT S. LOVETT, AS TRUSTEE, APPELLEES.

MOTION OF THE APPELLEES UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY AND OREGON SHORT LINE RAILROAD COMPANY FOR MODIFICATION OF MANDATE SO AS TO AUTHORIZE THE DISTRICT COURT, IN ITS DISCRETION, TO EXTEND TIME FOR SUBMISSION OF PLAN FOR DISPOSITION PETITIONERS' HOLDING OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC STOCK.

TO THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE AND ASSOCIATE JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES:

Come now the Union Pacific Railroad Company and Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, appellees in the above entitled cause, by their counsel, and respectfully move this Court to recall its mandate herein to the District Court of the United States for the District of Utah and so to modify its decision rendered herein on the 2d day of December, 1912, and said mandate thereon, that the said District Court may be authorized, in its discretion, to extend the time within which a plan may be presented to said District Court for the disposal by petitioners of their holdings of the stock of the Southern Pacific Company, and for causes of such motion respectfully show as follows:

The Interlocutory Decree.

(1) Heretofore, at the present term of this Court, this Court remanded this cause to the District Court of the United States for the District of Utah, with directions to enter a decree and for further proceedings in conformity with the opinion of this Court. The opinion of this Court, to which reference is made by the said mandate, directed that any plan or plans for the disposition of the shares of stock of the Southern Pacific Company held by petitioners should be presented to said District Court within three months from the receipt of the mandate of this Court (226 U. S., 61). Said mandate was received by said District Court on the 12th day of February, 1913, and thereupon on the same day said District Court entered an interlocutory decree herein, a copy of which is hereto annexed and marked Exhibit A, and said interlocutory decree, in conformity with the mandate and opinion of this Court, directed that any plan for the disposition of said stock of the Southern Pacific Company be presented within three months from said 12th day of February, 1913. Petitioners have prepared several plans for the disposal of said stock, including one plan which was filed and formally approved by the Attorney General of the United States, which have failed, as will more fully hereinafter appear, because of unexpected objections by the Railroad Commission of the State of California. The time limited as aforesaid for the filing of a dissolution plan acceptable to said District Court expires on the 12th day of May, 1913, and petitioners, notwithstanding the exercise of the utmost diligence, and without fault of their own, have not succeeded in submitting a plan to said District Court for its action except as herein stated.

The combination adjudged unlawful already effectively dissolved by termination of Union Pacific voice in management of Southern Pacific and the disfranchisement of the Union Pacific Company's holdings of Southern Pacific stock.

(2) On the 13th day of January, 1913, all members of the Board of Directors of the Southern Pacific Company who were also directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company resigned from the Board of the Southern Pacific Company, except one director whose resignation was delayed by his absence and illness until the first day of February, 1913, and there were elected, in the stead of the directors who so resigned, directors who then had, and have since had, no official relation with the Union Pacific Railroad Company. The members of said Southern Pacific board as reconstituted had never been directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, with the exceptions of Julius Kruttschnitt, who had served for a short time on the Union Pacific board, but who had been actively identified with the Southern Pacific Company from the time of his graduation from College, and Henry W. de Forest, who had served on the Southern Pacific board for several years prior to his election to the Union Pacific board. At about the same time such resignations and elections of officers occurred that the Union Pacific Railroad Company system and the Southern Pacific Company system possessed, and now possess, no officers in common; and the present chief executive officials of the Southern Pacific System are men who were identified with that System prior to the acquisition by the Union Pacific Company of any interest in the stock of the Southern Pacific Company. Taking effect on the 1st day of February, 1913, all joint commercial and soliciting agencies of the two systems were dissolved and separate agencies were established in lieu thereof. Thereafter and on the 9th day of April, 1913, the annual meeting of said Southern Pacific Company was held, at which a new board of directors was elected, identical with two exceptions, as petitioners are informed and believe, with said board as reconstituted in January, 1913, as aforesaid, and the two new directors so elected are not, and have never been, directors or officers of appellee Union Pacific Railroad Company or its subsidiary corporations. The shares of the capital stock of said Southern Pacific Company held by petitioners were not voted or represented at said annual stockholders' meeting of said Southern Pacific Company. Wherefore petitioners aver that all actual control by petitioners over the management and affairs of said Southern Pacific Company has been dissolved, and that the only existing relation of petitioners with said Southern Pacific Company consists of the ownership of shares of the capital stock of said Southern Pacific Company as to which, under the injunctive provisions contained in the interlocutory decree of said District Court filed on the 12th day of February, 1913, petitioners are disfranchised. Accordingly the dissolution of the combination between petitioners and the Southern Pacific Company is complete and effective without regard to the sale of petitioners' holdings of Southern Pacific stock.

Requirement of the Attorney General that the Southern Pacific Company divest itself of the control of the Central Pacific lines.

(3) Immediately after the decision of this Court rendered on the 6th day of January, 1913 (226 U. S., 470), upon the motion made herein as to the form of the mandate, the then Attorney General of the United States advised petitioners that no plan of dissolution would be approved by him as adequate to effectually dissolve said combination in conformity with the opinions expressed by this Court herein, unless such plan provided for the transfer of the control of the line of railroad of the Central Pacific Railway Company from Ogden, Utah, to San Francisco, California, from the Southern Pacific Company to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and advised the Southern Pacific Company, appellee herein, that, unless it voluntarily terminated its control of said Central Pacific Railway Company, he would institute proceedings in behalf of the United States of America against it, by supplemental bill herein or otherwise, to have adjudged illegal its said control of the Central Pacific Railway Company, under the Act of Congress of July 2, 1890, known as the Anti-Trust Act, and under the Acts of Congress known as the Pacific Railroad Acts, under which the Central Pacific Railway and Union Pacific Railroad were constructed.

First Plan for Disposition of Stock.

(4) Upon being advised of the Attorney General's position, stated above, petitioners proceeded diligently, in negotiation with the reorganized board of directors of the Southern Pacific Company, to formulate a plan in conformity with the opinions and decrees of this Court herein and with the policy of the government. Such negotiations were originally based upon a proposed exchange of stock of said Southern Pacific Company held by petitioners for the entire capital stock of said Central Pacific Railway Company, through the ownership of which said Southern Pacific Company controlled said Central Pacific Railway Company, but said proposed plan of exchange was finally abandoned because of complications arising under the statutes of the State of Kentucky, in which State said Southern Pacific Company has its domicile.

Second Plan.

(5) Thereafter a second plan of dissolution was formulated and embodied in an agreement dated the 8th day of February, 1913, a copy of which is hereto an-nexed marked Exhibit B. Said plan was approved by the then Attorney General of the United States, and presented to said District Court by a petition filed on the 12th day of February, 1913, a copy of which is hereto annexed and marked Exhibit C. By said plan it was proposed (first) that the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company, held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company be disposed of by offering to all stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and all stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company (except petitioners) the right to subscribe for and purchase shares of said Southern Pacific Company capital stock held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company not subscribed and purchased by stockholders, at $98.67 per share, and accrued dividend; (second) that an underwriting syndicate be formed to purchase all of said capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company not subscribed for by stockholders pursuant to such offer of subscription rights; (third) that all the right, title and interest of the Southern Pacific Company in and to the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company be sold to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, with numerous necessary incidental adjustments as to financial affairs and as to the ownership and use of terminal and other railroad properties, all in consideration of the payment by Union Pacific Railroad Company of the net proceeds of the sale, provided for as aforesaid, of 846,755 shares of the stock of the Southern Pacific Company and additional payments making an aggregate of over $100,000,000, and the assumption by Union Pacific Railroad Company of bonds of the Central Pacific Railway Company guaranteed by the Southern Pacific Company, and the purchase of other obligations of the Central Pacific Railway Company held by the Southern Pacific Company, to the aggregate amount of about $200,000,000.

Objections to Plan by California Railroad Commission.

(6) The aforesaid plan was proposed subject to certain conditions precedent expressed in Section 34 of said Agreement of February 8, 1913, (page 32 of Exhibit B annexed hereto), one of said conditions being that the Railroad Commission of the State of California should approve the provisions of said Agreement involving the sale, lease and use of railroad and terminal properties located in the State of California. Immediately after the filing of said plan, petitioners made application to the Railroad Commission of the State of California for such approval, and, by an order made on the 24th day of February, 1913, said Commission refused said application, except upon the acceptance of certain conditions therein specified. A hearing upon said plan was had before the District Court on the 24th day of February, 1913; but the petitioners and said District Court were advised during the pendency of said hearing of the decision of the Railroad Commission of the State of California and this decision rendered it impossible to proceed with the plan then under consideration in the form in which the same had been presented.

Third Plan.

(7) The parties to said agreement deemed it impossible to accept all the conditions imposed by the order of said Railroad Commission, and therefore resumed their negotiations in the hope of effecting a modified agreement which would obviate such of the conditions so imposed as could not be accepted. Such negotiations were delayed by the expiration on March 4, 1913, of the term of office of the Attorney General under whose direction and compulsion the said plan had been formulated and by the necessity of resuming negotiations with his successor in office and acquainting him with the complexities of the proceedings. Finally on the 13th day of March, 1913, petitioners and the Southern Pacific Company agreed upon another plan in the form of modifications of the aforesaid plan of dissolution previously formulated, whereby the parties accepted certain of the conditions imposed by said Railroad Commission in its order aforesaid, and annulled and abrogated all the provisions of said earlier plan, and of the agreement embodying the details thereof, to which the other conditions imposed by said Railroad Commission related. In lieu of and as a partial offset to certain rights and privileges surrendered by petitioners by the abrogation of the provisions for the joint use of certain railroad lines and terminals and for trackage or running rights, which were deemed by petitioners to constitute a material part of the consideration for the aggregate purchase price agreed by them to be paid under said previous plan, said new plan included agreements for the preferential routing of certain interstate traffic over the through routes composed of the lines of the Southern Pacific Company and the lines of the Central Pacific Railway Company in so far as each of said parties should be unable to secure the routing of such traffic exclusively via its own lines.

The Underwriting Syndicate.

(8) The then Attorney General had required petitioners, prior to the submission of the first plan of dissolution to the District Court, to make and publish a formal offer to the stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company and the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company of the right to subscribe for and purchase the stock of the Southern Pacific Company held by petitioners, and to secure the formation of a syndicate to underwrite said purchase as contemplated by said plan. Accordingly such offer was made by petitioners early in February, 1913, and such underwriting secured by a syndicate composed of 663 participants distributed throughout the United States and Europe, both the offer of subscription rights and the syndicate arrangements being made conditional upon the entry of a decree by the District Court approving said plan. By the terms of said syndicate agreement, it was required that the offer of subscription rights should be made unconditional on or before the 15th day of March, 1913, or the obligations of the syndicate released. Since the sale of said stock of the Southern Pacific Company held by petitioners constituted an essential part of said second plan of dissolution, as well as of the first plan of dissolution, it was necessary that petitioners should secure, on or before the 15th day of March, 1913, the approval of said plan by the District Court. Accordingly, petitioners arranged by telegraph with the United States Circuit Judges, constituting said District Court for the purposes of this cause, for a hearing before said court on the 15th day of March, 1913.

Requirement of further consent of California Railroad Commission.

(9) There remained, as a necessary condition of said third plan, the condition precedent expressed in Section 34 of the agreement of February 8, 1913, embodying the second plan (Exhibit B annexed hereto) that certain French banks should grant their consent to the sale of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company, which consent was required under covenants contained in the so-called European Loan Indenture of the Central Pacific Railway Company, guaranteed by the Southern Pacific Company, securing an issue of bonds to the amount of 250,000,000 francs. Immediately upon the filing of the earlier plan aforesaid, application was made by petitioners to said French banks for their consent, but such consent was refused by them, except upon the condition that, in addition to the assumption of said European Loan bonds by the Union Pacific Railroad Company as provided in said plan, the railroad properties of the Central Pacific Railway Company should be leased to the Union Pacific Railroad Company. In so far as such railroad properties were located in the State of California, such lease, under the statutes of said State, required the approval of the Railroad Commission of that State, and accordingly application was made by petitioners to said Railroad Commission for such approval, and such application was pending undetermined at the time of the formation of the third plan of dissolution aforesaid. Immediately upon the formation of said plan, petitioners endeavored by telegraph to hasten the decision of said Railroad Commission upon said application.

Forced withdrawal of third plan by reason of objections of California Railroad Commission.

(10) The representatives of the parties to said plan duly appeared before said District Court on the 15th day of March, 1913, but, being then advised by telegraph of the failure of said Railroad Commission of the State of California to approve the proposed lease required by said French banks of the properties of the Central Pacific Railway Company to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, petitioners were then unable to submit said plan to said District Court for action.

Expiration of Syndicate.

(11) The earlier plan filed with the District Court on the 12th day of February, 1913, and the modification thereof last above mentioned, therefore failed because of the attitude of the California Railroad Commission, and petitioners were obliged to withdraw the offer of subscription rights theretofore made and the syndicate aforesaid for the underwriting of the purchase of the Southern Pacific Company stock expired by limitation on the 15th day of March, 1913.

Fourth Plan.

(12) It appearing to petitioners, in view of the facts aforesaid, impracticable to work out prior to the 12th day of May, 1912, any plan based on the vesting in the Union Pacific Railroad Company of the control of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, petitioners have, since the 15th day of March, 1913, formulated still another plan, providing only for the disposition of the stock of the Southern Pacific Company held by them, which has been submitted to the Circuit Judges and the Attorney General for a preliminary consideration in advance of a formal presentation thereof.

Remaining Time Allowed by Decision of this Court Not Sufficient.

(13) If, upon such preliminary consideration of said last mentioned plan, it is not in substance satisfactory to the Circuit Judges, it will be impracticable for petitioners to formulate a further plan and file the same before the 12th day of May, 1913, on which date the time for filing such plans expires under the mandate of this Court. Even if said plan appears acceptable to said Circuit Judges upon such preliminary consideration, an uncertainty will remain whether upon a formal hearing the opposition of the Attorney General or of others may prevail and defeat said plan, and, in the event of the ultimate rejection thereof subsequent to the 12th day of May, 1913, it will be obligatory under the mandate and opinion of this Court for the District Court to appoint a Receiver and to proceed to dispose of said stock by sale or otherwise, as it shall be advised.

Additional Time Required.

(14) Petitioners respectfully submit that, in view of their diligent efforts to comply with the decrees and opinions of this Court herein, and to satisfy the policy of the Government throughout these dissolution proceedings in so far as petitioners have been advised of that policy, and inasmuch as every plan formulated by petitioners has failed without fault on the part of the petitioners, and in view of the effective practical termination of the combination adjudged to be unlawful, the ends of justice do not require that petitioners should be foreclosed of suitable further opportunity to present a method of disposing of said stock acceptable to the District Court and which will protect petitioners from the loss probably incident to a receivership and compulsory sale thereof and further respectfully submit that the discretion of said District Court as to the control of said time should not be limited.

Certificate of Circuit Judges.

(15) Filed herewith is a certificate signed by Circuit Judges Sanborn, Hook and Smith, of the 8th Judicial Circuit, (Circuit Judge Adams not sitting) recommending the granting of this motion.

WHEREFORE, petitioners respectfully move this Court as aforesaid.

Dated April 22, 1913.

Decree.

The above-entitled cause having duly come on for hearing before this Court, and having been determined adversely to the complainant, and the said cause having been appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, by which court the decree of this Court dismissing the said bill of complaint was in part reversed, and a mandate from the Supreme Court in proper form containing directions as to the decree to be entered herein having been filed here on the 12th day of February, 1913.

Now, therefore, this cause came on to be further heard at this term, and was argued by counsel, and thereupon, upon consideration thereof, it was ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows, viz :

SECTION 1. That the final decree entered herein on June 24, 1911, dismissing the bill be set aside so far as the same was reversed by the Supreme Court.

SEC. 2. That prior to the year 1901, and ever since said date, the defendant Union Pacific Railroad Company, has controlled, by the ownership of substantially all the stock thereof, the defendant Oregon Short Line Railroad Company ; and that the defendant Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, by the ownership of substantially all the stock thereof, has controlled the defendant Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, which latter company has controlled, and still does, through the ownership of all the stock thereof, control the Portland & Asiatic Steamship Company ; and that in the year 1901, and for several years prior thereto, said Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company had been the owner and engaged in the operation of a line of steamships between Portland, Oregon, and San Francisco, California, that it continued in the operation of the same until about the year 1904, when a corporation was organized, of which said Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company then was and still is the sole stockholder, known as the San Francisco and Portland Steamship Company, which took over the said line of ships between San Francisco and Portland, and has since been operating the same in connection with the rail lines of said Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company; and that the lines of railway and steamships of said corporations were, prior to 1901, and ever since have been, controlled and managed in all respects by the defendant Union Pacific Railroad Company; and that prior to the year 1901, and continuously since that date, the said defendant Union Pacific Railroad Company and its said subsidiary corporations, owned, controlled, and managed by it, have owned and have been engaged in the operation of a system of railroad and steamship lines.

SEC. 3. That the defendant Southern Pacific Company controls, by direct ownership, stock ownership, and lease a system of rail and steamship lines, and also by the ownership of a majority of its stock has, during all of said time, controlled the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, which is engaged in transportation business between the port of San Francisco and various ports in China and Japan, which ports in China and Japan were also served by said Portland and Asiatic Steamship Company.

SEC. 4. That the Central Pacific Railroad Company was organized under the laws of California, and constructed a line of railroad from Sacramento, California, to Ogden, Utah;

That the Western Pacific Railroad Company was organized under the laws of California, and constructed a line of railroad from San Francisco to Sacramento, California, and that these two latter corporations were afterwards consolidated into and became the Central Pacific Railroad Company, which was for many years engaged in the operation of said line of railroad from San Francisco to Ogden, at which point it connected with the main line of said Union Pacific Railroad Company;

That the said Southern Pacific Company was and is also the owner of all the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Utah, which succeeded to the ownership of the line of railway from Ogden to San Francisco, theretofore owned by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, hereinbefore particularly described; and by virtue of such ownership of all said capital stock said Southern Pacific Company in all respects controls the operation and management of the affairs and business of said Central Pacific Railway Company.

That the railways and properties formerly belonging to the said Central Pacific Railroad Company were, by indenture and agreement dated July 28, 1899, conveyed to the said Central Pacific Railway Company.

That prior thereto and on or about the 17th day of February, 1885, the said Central Pacific Railroad Company leased to the said Southern Pacific Company, all of its railroad and properties for a period of ninety-nine years, which lease was thereafter modified by agreements between the parties dated the first day of January, 1888, and the 7th day of December, 1893, dated respectively, and the 22d day of March, 1894, and that the railroads of the said Central Pacific Railroad and said Central Pacific Railway were controlled and operated by the said Southern Pacific Company, and thereafter, and in or about the month of March, 1901, said Southern Pacific Company passed under the control of the Union Pacific Railroad Company as hereinbefore specified.

SEC. 5. That prior to the year 1901, the said systems of rail and steamship lines of the defendant Union Pacific Railroad Company and the defendant Southern Pacific Company, and different portions of the same were, and but for the suppression of competition hereinafter mentioned would still be, active competitors for the transportation of large quantities of freight and passengers between the Atlantic seaboard and the Pacific coast, and between various other points. That the railroad and steamship lines of said Union Pacific Railroad Company's system and said Southern Pacific Company's system are natural competitors.

SEC. 6. That in the spring of 1901 the said defendants, Jacob H. Schiff, Otto H. Kahn and James Stillman, together with one Edward H. Harriman, who was originally a defendant in this cause, but who has died during the pendency thereof, for the purpose of enabling the Union Pacific Railroad Company to acquire control of the railroad system of the Southern Pacific Company and thereby to form the combination herein described, caused to be acquired for transfer to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and said Company thereupon, in consummation of said plan acquired 750,000 shares of the stock of said Southern Pacific Company of the par value of $75,000,000 out of a total issue of 1,978,477 shares of the aggregate par value of $197,847,788 then issued and outstanding (said shares being delivered to said defendant Union Pacific Railroad Company on or about March 4, 1901), so that the same might be held in the treasury of said company and voted by it for the purpose and with the intention of controlling the election of the board of directors and officers of the said Southern Pacific Company and eliminating the competition that had theretofore existed between said Union Pacific system and said Southern Pacific system.

That the said shares of stock were afterwards transferred to the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, to be held for the use and benefit of said Union Pacific Railroad Company. That thereafter for the purpose of strengthening and completing said combination the Union Pacific Railroad Company acquired, from time to time, additional shares of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company, and turned the same over to the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company to be held for the use and benefit of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, until the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company had acquired and now owns and holds 1,266,500 shares of the capital stock of said Southern Pacific Company, out of a total of 2,726,724 shares issued and outstanding, or about 46% thereof.

That at each and every annual meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company for the election of directors since said 750,000 shares of stock were so acquired, the stock so held by said Union Pacific Railroad Company and said Oregon Short Line Railroad Company has constituted a majority of the shares represented at such meetings, and the directors of said Southern Pacific Company have been chosen by the vote of such stock;

That the balance of the stock of said Southern Pacific Company is scattered among a large number of stockholders, and that by reason of the fact that such stock is so scattered the full amount of the same is not, and never has been voted at any meeting, for which reason the said stock of the Southern Pacific Company so controlled by said Oregon Short Line Railroad Company has constituted a majority of the stock of said Southern Pacific Company at the meetings of the stockholders thereof, and by reason of said stock ownership the said Union Pacific Railroad Company and its said subsidiary corporation have controlled said Southern Pacific Company; and in the case of a large corporation of the character of the Southern Pacific Company a compact, united ownership of 46% of the stock is ample to control the operations of the corporation.

That since April 3, 1901, members of the board of directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company have constituted a majority of the board of directors of said Southern Pacific Company.

That for several years last past the Union Pacific Railroad Company and its subsidiary lines and said Southern Pacific Company have had common traffic officials, operating officials, purchasing agents, and commercial agents, and the said lines of railway and steamships of said respective systems have been and are operated as a single system, and the competition that formerly existed between the said two railway systems with their steamships, has been destroyed, and the interstate and foreign commerce which was formerly the subject of competition between said two systems has been in the hands and under the control of said Union Pacific Railroad Company and its subsidiary corporations and their officials.

SEC. 7. That the stocks of the Southern Pacific Company were acquired and are held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company by virtue of an unlawful combination to restrain trade and commerce, and eliminate the competition herein described.

SEC. 8. That the defendants Union Pacific Railroad Company and Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, acting directly or through their respective officers, boards of directors, executive committees, agents, servants, or through any other person, firm or corporation, acting for or in the interest of said companies, are hereby perpetually enjoined from purchasing, acquiring, receiving, holding, voting, whether by proxy or otherwise, or in any manner acting as the owner of any of the shares of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company.

SECTION 9. That the defendant Southern Pacific Company, its officers, directors, servants, and agents, and all persons acting by, through, or under it, be, and they are hereby respectively and collectively enjoined from permitting the stock aforesaid to be voted by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, or in their behalf by their attorneys or agents or the attorneys or agents of either of them, at any meeting of the stockholders of said railway company; and said Southern Pacific Company, together with its officers, directors, servants, and agents, are likewise enjoined and respectively restrained from paying any dividends to said Union Pacific Railroad Company or the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, or to any person for them or either of them on account of stock in said Southern Pacific Company which the said Oregon Short Line Railroad Company now claims to own and hold, and from paying any dividends on said stock while thus held, except to a receiver to be appointed by this court to collect and hold such dividends until disposed of by the decree of this court; and said Southern Pacific Company, its officers, directors, servants, and agents, are further enjoined from permitting or suffering the Union Pacific Railroad Company, the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, or any of its officers or agents, from exercising any control whatsoever over the corporate acts of said Southern Pacific Company.

SECTION 10. That the defendants Union Pacific Railroad Company, Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company and Southern Pacific Company, together with the officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, and all persons and corporations acting by, through, or under the corporations named in this section, are enjoined and prohibited from continuing or carrying into further effect the combination hereby adjudged illegal, either:

(a) By the use of any written evidences of a stock interest in the said Southern Pacific Company, Union Pacific Railroad Company, Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, or either of them, or by causing the conveyance of the physical property and business of the Southern Pacific Company, on the one hand, to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, or either of them, upon the other hand; or by causing the conveyance of the physical property and business of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, or either of them, upon the one hand, to the Southern Pacific Company, upon the other hand; or by placing the control of the Southern Pacific Company, on the one hand, and of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, and the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, upon the other hand, in a trustee or group of trustees; or by causing the stock in said Southern Pacific Company to be held by any person for the benefit of

And the defendant Southern Pacific Company, its officers, directors, agents, and servants, and each and every one of them, are enjoined from recognizing as valid any transfer, mortgage, pledge or assignment by said Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, of the said shares of stock of said Southern Pacific Company, unless the same shall be authorized by this court.

Any such plan or plans shall be filed with the Clerk of this Court within three months from the 12th day of February, 1913.

SECTION 13. The complainant herein is hereby granted leave at any time, by motion or by supplemental or amended bill, or petition, as it may be advised, to make and bring in any additional parties, and the Clerk of this Court is directed to issue all the necessary and appropriate process to that end.

SECTION 14. That as directed by the said Supreme Court of the United States, the said defendants may present to this court plans for the disposition of the stock of said Southern Pacific Company, so held by said Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, within three months from the 12th day of February, 1913, the date of the filing of the mandate in this court; and the court, upon the presentation of such plans will hear the complainant and defendants and will bring in any additional parties whose presence may be found necessary to a final disposition of the stock in conformity with the decision of the Supreme Court. In the event that defendants shall fail to present such plans within said time, or upon the rejection by the court of the plans submitted within such time, this court will take such further steps relative to a disposition of such stock as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this decree, jurisdiction of the cause being retained for that purpose.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY,
SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY,
CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY,
SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY and OREGON SHORT LINE RAILROAD COMPANY.

Agreement,

Dated February 8, 1913.

Agreement, made this eighth day of February, 1913, by and between UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation of the State of Utah; SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY, a corporation of the State of Kentucky; CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY, a corporation of the State of Utah; SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation of the States of California, Arizona and New Mexico; and OREGON SHORT LINE RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation of the State of Utah;

WHEREAS: The Union Pacific Railroad Company has, from time to time, acquired, in its own name or in the name of the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, shares of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company to the aggregate amount of One hundred twenty-six million six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($126,650,000), par value, and said entire amount is now held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company. The Supreme Court of the United States in an opinion rendered on the 2d day of December, 1912, on the appeal of the United States of America from a decree entered by the Circuit Court of the United States in and for the District of Utah in a suit in which the United States of America was complainant and the Union Pacific Railroad Company, Southern Pacific Company and others were respondents (hereinafter designated as the "Merger Suit"), held that the acquisition and ownership by the Union Pacific Railroad Company and the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company of said capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company constituted an unlawful combination, and directed that said capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company be disposed of, subject to the approval of the District Court of the United States in and for the District of Utah, in such manner as to effectually dissolve said combination. The Southern Pacific Company owns the entire outstanding capital stock, common and preferred, of the Central Pacific Railway Company, except qualifying shares held by the directors of said Company. Since the aforesaid decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Merger Suit the Union Pacific Railroad Company has surrendered all control of the management of the Southern Pacific Company, and directors and other officers of the Southern Pacific Company have been elected and appointed who have no official relation with the Union Pacific Railroad Company. The Attorney-General of the United States, as counsel for the complainant in the Merger Suit, and the parties hereto desire that, as an incident of the proceedings for the dissolution of the combination held illegal in that suit, the control of the railroads and appurtenant property of the Central Pacific Railway Company, with certain exceptions, shall be transferred from the Southern Pacific Company to the Union Pacific Railroad Company. The Southern Pacific Company, through its reconstituted Board of Directors, has offered to sell to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company is willing to purchase, all the right, title and interest of the Southern Pacific Company in and to the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company and in and to the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, (held by the Southern Pacific Company as a muniment of title), for the consideration and upon the terms expressed in the following agreement, in the event that the amount necessary to pay such consideration can be realized by the sale, in the manner hereinafter set forth, of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company now held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company. It is proposed by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, subject to the approval of the District Court of the United States for the District of Utah, to offer the entire amount of its holdings of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company for sale to the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and the stockholders (other than the Union Pacific Railroad Company and the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company) of the Southern Pacific Company, in the manner hereinafter in this agreement indicated. The aforesaid capital stock of said Central Pacific Railway Company to the amount of Sixty-seven million two hundred seventy-four thousand two hundred dollars ($67,274,200), par value, of common capital stock, and Seventeen million four hundred thousand dollars ($17,400,000), par value, of preferred capital stock, being the entire outstanding capital stock of said company, except Thirteen hundred dollars ($1,300), par value, is now pledged with the Union Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, under a mortgage executed by said Southern Pacific Company, dated August 1, 1899, to secure an issue of bonds of said Southern Pacific Company, known as its "Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral)," now outstanding to the amount of Thirty-four million two hundred eighteen thousand five hundred dollars ($34,218,500), par value, of which Five million four hundred forty-nine thousand dollars ($5,449,000), par value, are now owned by the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree as follows:

FIRST.

1. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees to sell, assign and transfer to Union Pacific Railroad Company, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company hereby agrees to purchase, upon the terms hereinafter expressed, all the right, title and interest of the Southern Pacific Company in and to Sixty-seven million two hundred seventy-five thousand five hundred dollars ($67,275,500), par value, of the common capital stock, and Seventeen million four hundred thousand dollars ($17,400,000), par value, of the preferred capital stock, of the Central Pacific Railway Company, being the entire capital stock of said Company outstanding ; and all the right, title and interest of the Southern Pacific Company in and to Sixty-seven million two hundred thirty-five thousand eight hundred dollars ($67,235,800), par value, of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, being the entire amount of the capital stock of said Company owned or held by the Southern Pacific Company.

2. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, to secure the resignation of the then existing directors of the Central Pacific Railway Company and the due and regular election in their stead, as such directors, of such persons as the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall have nominated for election as such directors, and to cause the shares to the amount of Thirteen hundred dollars ($1,300), par value, of the common capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company, now registered in the names of the existing directors of the Central Pacific Railway Company, to be transferred to, and registered on the books of said company in, the names of the aforesaid nominees of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and to cause the certificates for said shares to be duly delivered to such nominees.

3. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, to cause to be transferred to, and registered on the books of the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Central Pacific Railroad Company, respectively, in the name of the Union Pacific Railroad Company all the certificates representing the Sixty-seven million two hundred seventy-four thousand two hundred dollars ($67,274,200), par value, of common capital stock, and the Seventeen million four hundred thousand dollars ($17,400,000) par value, of preferred capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company, now pledged with the Union Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, as security for the Southern Pacific Company's Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral), and Sixty-seven million six thousand three hundred dollars ($67,006,300), par value, of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railroad Company pledged with said Union Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, under a supplemental mortgage, dated December 29, 1899, as a further assurance for the payment of said bonds, and to cause the new certificates therefor, endorsed in blank by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, to be redeposited with said Union Trust Company of New York, subject, however, to a lien in favor of the Southern Pacific Company upon said stock certificates, if and when the same shall be released from the lien of said mortgages, to secure the payment of any and all instalments of the consideration expressed in Section 7 hereof then remaining unpaid.

4. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, to assign and deliver to Union Pacific Railroad Company the certificates representing Two hundred seventeen thousand dollars ($217,000), par value, of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railroad Company now held in its treasury, and all letters of indemnity and other papers evidencing the ownership of an additional Twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500), par value, of said Central Pacific Railroad Company capital stock, and, whenever requested by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, to secure the resignation of the then existing directors of the Central Pacific Railroad Company and the due and regular election in their stead, as such directors, of such persons as the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall have nominated therefor.

5. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, to execute and deliver to the Central Pacific Railway Company an instrument releasing, cancelling and surrendering the indentures of lease, dated February 17, 1885, and December 7, 1893, by and between the Central Pacific Railroad Company and the Southern Pacific Company, and the supplemental lease, dated March 1, 1912, by and between the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company, and all other agreements supplementary to, or in modification of, said instruments, under and by virtue of which the Southern Pacific Company now holds and operates the railroads and other properties of the Central Pacific Railway Company.

6. The Union Pacific Railroad Company and the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company hereby agree to offer to all stockholders, common and preferred, of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and to all stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company (except the Union Pacific Railroad Company and the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company), registered on the stock books of said companies, respectively, on a date specified in such offer, the right to subscribe for and purchase the entire amount of One hundred twenty-six million six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($126,650,000), par value, of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company now held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, in the proportions and upon the terms hereinafter specified. Each such stockholder of the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall be offered the right to subscribe for and purchase one share of said capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company for each four shares of capital stock of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, common or preferred, registered in his name on the stock books of said Union Pacific Railroad Company ; and each such stockholder of the Southern Pacific Company shall be offered the right to subscribe for and purchase one share of said capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company for each three shares of capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company registered in his name on the stock books of said Southern Pacific Company. Such offer shall specify, as the date on or before which all subscriptions shall be made (hereinafter called the "subscription date"), a date not exceeding thirty days after the effective date of this agreement. The subscription and purchase right so offered shall be a right to purchase at the subscription price of $98.67 per share, and accrued dividend, payable as follows, viz.: Twenty-five per cent. thereof to accompany the subscription; twenty-five per cent. thereof to be paid substantially three months after the subscription date; twenty-five per cent. thereof to be paid substantially six months after the subscription date; and the remaining twenty-five per cent. thereof to be paid substantially nine months after the subscription date; with interest on the deferred instalments of such subscription price from the subscription date at a rate per cent. per annum equal to the accrued dividend, with an option, however, to each subscriber to anticipate the maturity of any deferred instalment of the subscription price, at any time, upon the payment of the amount of such instalment and the accrued interest thereon to the date of payment. The terms of said subscription rights shall provide that all voting and dividend rights incident to the stock so purchased shall vest in the subscribers upon the acceptance of their subscriptions, but that the stock certificates to which the subscribers shall be entitled by virtue of their subscriptions shall be held as collateral security for the payment of the deferred instalments of the subscription price, with full power to sell said stock at public or private sale, and without notice, upon default in the payment of any instalment of such subscription price. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees to furnish a certified list of its stockholders entitled to participate in such subscription rights, to issue promptly all stock certificates requested by the Union Pacific Railroad Company for delivery to subscribers, upon surrender by the Union Pacific Railroad Company or the Depositary, in due form for transfer, of certificates for an equal amount of stock, and to take all such other action as may be necessary to facilitate the initiation and accomplishment of the plan herein provided for.

7. The Union Pacific Railroad Company hereby agrees to pay and render, and the Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees to accept, as the full consideration and purchase price of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company and the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railroad Company to be purchased by it, as hereinbefore provided, and as the full consideration for the performance by the Southern Pacific Company of the obligations expressed in the foregoing Sections 2, 3, 4 and 5, as follows: (a) Fourteen million sixty-five thousand four hundred forty-one dollars ($14,065,441) in cash, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. per annum from the first day of January, 1913, immediately upon the performance by the Southern Pacific Company of the obligations expressed in the foregoing Sections 3 and 5. (b) To surrender and deliver to the Southern Pacific Company, duly cancelled, immediately upon the performance by the Southern Pacific Company of the obligations expressed in the foregoing Sections 3 and 5, Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) of the Southern Pacific Company to the principal amount of Five million four hundred forty-nine thousand dollars ($5,449,000), par value, now held by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and to pay an amount equal to interest at the rate of five per cent. on the principal amount of said bonds from the first day of January, 1913, less the interest accrued on the bonds so surrendered from the first day of December, 1912, to the date of said surrender. (c) The net proceeds of the sale, made in accordance with the plan contemplated in the foregoing Section 6, of 846,755 shares of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company of the par value of Eighty-four million six hundred seventy-five thousand five hundred dollars ($84,675,-500) now held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, being the gross proceeds of the sale of said 846,755 shares at Ninety-eight dollars and sixty-seven cents ($98.67) per share, less an underwriters' commission of three per cent. and an allowance to said underwriters of not exceeding one-quarter of one per cent. for expenses; such payment to be made in instalments as follows: Twenty-five per cent. of the gross proceeds of the said sale, less the aforesaid commission and expenses of underwriting assumed by the Southern Pacific Company, to be payable on the subscription date, and the balance to be paid in three equal instalments each consisting of twenty-five per cent. of the gross proceeds of said sale, payable, respectively, substantially three, six and nine months after the subscription date, with interest on each of said four instalments at the rate of five per cent. per annum from the first day of January, 1913, until paid. The Union Pacific Railroad Company shall have the right or option to pay any instalment, or any part of any instalment, of said consideration and purchase price at any time prior to the dates above fixed, and upon the making of any such payment or payments interest shall cease in respect to the sum or sums so paid. All interest due as aforesaid shall be paid by the Union Pacific Railroad Company semi-annually on July 1 and January 1, the first payment to be made on July 1, 1913. PROVIDED, however, that, if the Union Pacific Railroad Company prior to the payment of the consideration and purchase price as aforesaid shall have elected, pursuant to the option hereinafter accorded it, to require the redemption by the Southern Pacific Company of the Southern Pacific Company's Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) and shall have notified the Southern Pacific Company of such election, the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall not be required to pay on account of the cash payments aforesaid an amount exceeding, exclusive of interest payments, the sum of Forty-eight million five hundred thousand dollars ($48,500,000), unless and until the Southern Pacific Company shall deliver to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, or its order, the certificates representing all the shares of the capital stock of said Central Pacific Railway Company and of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, now pledged with the Union Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, to secure the Southern Pacific Company's outstanding Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral), released and discharged from the lien of the mortgages securing said bonds and free from all other liens and charges; and that, upon the tender by the Southern Pacific Company of delivery of all the certificates of capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company and Central Pacific Railroad Company now pledged with the Union Trust Company of New York, as aforesaid, released, discharged and free from all liens and charges, as aforesaid, all payments theretofore deferred, because of the inability of the Southern Pacific Company previously to deliver the same, shall immediately be made together with interest thereon at the rate and at the dates herein provided. AND PROVIDED further, that the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall be entitled to five days of grace in the payment of the four instalments of the cash consideration described in the foregoing subdivision (c) of this section, from and after the receipt by it from the subscribers, or from the underwriters, of the proceeds of sale constituting such instalments.

8. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees, whenever requested by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, to call for redemption the entire amount of its Four Per Cent. Gold

Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) then outstanding under the aforesaid mortgage and supplemental mortgage dated August 1, 1899, and December 29, 1899, pursuant to the provisions of said mortgage regarding redemption, and to redeem and pay said bonds and to take all action and proceedings necessary to release and completely discharge the lien of said mortgages, so that the certificates representing the capital stock pledged thereunder may be surrendered and delivered to the Union Pacific Railroad Company upon its making final payment therefor; PROVIDED, however, that the Union Pacific Railroad Company, in the event of its requesting such redemption, shall lend or cause to be loaned, to said Southern Pacific Company the amount necessary to pay the principal of the bonds so called for redemption, or so much thereof as the Southern Pacific Company shall request, such loan to be secured by an issue of the bonds of the Southern Pacific Company equal to the principal amount of said loan, payable ten years from the date of issue thereof, with interest thereon at the rate of four per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and to be issued under an indenture, in form approved by counsel for the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and containing the usual provisions for the maturity of principal in case of default in the payment of any instalment of interest and for the sale, in the event of default in the payment of the principal or of any instalment of interest, of any security pledged for the payment of said bonds. The said bonds shall be secured by collateral satisfactory in amount and character to the Union Pacific Railroad Company. In case there shall then be in the possession and control of the Southern Pacific Company stocks and bonds now pledged under the indenture dated March 1, 1911, between the Central Pacific Railway Company, Southern Pacific Company and United States Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, (hereinafter designated as the "European Loan Indenture"), released from the lien and restrictions of said European Loan Indenture, to an aggregate amount equal, at the valuations assigned to them in the European Loan Indenture, to the principal amount of the loan made by the Union Pacific Railroad Company to the Southern Pacific Company, as aforesaid, such stocks and bonds to such aggregate amount shall be deemed collateral satisfactory in amount and character, and shall be pledged and delivered by the Southern Pacific Company as such security, unless and until other collateral satisfactory to the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall be pledged.

9. Upon the payment of the Southern Pacific Company's Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) at their maturity or upon their redemption and payment prior to maturity, the Southern Pacific Company shall promptly secure the release and discharge of the mortgage and supplemental mortgage securing said bonds, and shall thereupon tender to the Union Pacific Railroad Company the certificates representing the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Central Pacific Railroad Company theretofore pledged to secure said bonds, and shall deliver the same to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, or its order, upon its final and complete payment of the consideration expressed in the foregoing Section 7. In the event that the said Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) shall be redeemed and paid prior to their maturity and prior to the due date of the final instalment of the consideration to be paid by the Union Pacific Railroad Company as expressed in the foregoing Section 7, the certificates representing the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Central Pacific Railroad Company thereupon released from the lien of the mortgage and supplemental mortgage securing said bonds shall, unless the Union Pacific Railroad Company desires to anticipate the maturity of said final instalment, be deposited in escrow by the Southern Pacific Company with such Trust Company in the City of New York, as shall be designated by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, to be delivered to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, or its order, upon the payment of the final instalment of the consideration aforesaid in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing Section 7.

10. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees duly and punctually to pay all instalments of interest on its aforesaid Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) as such interest shall mature, and to pay the principal of said bonds when the same shall become due, whether upon the maturity of said bonds or otherwise, and at all times to indemnify and save harmless the Union Pacific Railroad Company from an enforcement of the lien of the mortgage securing said bonds against the stocks pledged thereunder. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, to deliver to, and pledge with, the Union Pacific Railroad Company, as security for the obligations expressed in this section, collateral satisfactory in amount and character to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, In the event of the failure of the Southern Pacific Company to pay the principal of said bonds, or any instalment of interest thereon, when the same shall become due, the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall have the right to pay the same and to reimburse itself by the sale of said collateral at public or private sale without notice. The Union Pacific Railroad Company agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Southern Pacific Company from the obligations on its part to be performed under the said Central Pacific Stock Collateral Mortgage and the mortgage supplemental thereto, dated December 29, 1899, except the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds issued thereunder and of the compensation of the Trustee.

SECOND.

11. It is hereby agreed by all the parties hereto that, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, the Central Pacific Railway Company will make and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company will accept, and the Southern Pacific Company will guarantee on the part of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, a lease, for a term of 999 years, of the line of railroad of said Central Pacific Railway Company extending from Tehama, in Tehama County, in the State of California, to a connection with the line of railroad of the Oregon and California Railroad Company at the boundary line between the States of California and Oregon, with all franchises, rights, privileges, immunities and other property appertaining thereto, except equipment, at an annual rental payable in equal semi-annual instalments, on the first day of June and the first day of December of each year, equal to a year's interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on the value of said line of railroad and its franchises and appurtenances (other than equipment) to be leased as aforesaid, to be ascertained by arbitration, as hereinafter provided, in the event that the parties hereto shall be unable within twelve months from the effective date hereof to agree upon said valuation; with an option to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to purchase the said leased ine of railroad and its appurtenances at the valuation fixed as the basis of rental in accordance with this Section 11 whenever said line and its appurtenances can be conveyed by the Central Pacific Railway Company free from the mortgage liens now existing thereon. The Central Pacific Railway Company hereby agrees that it will create no additional lien upon said line of railroad without the consent of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company or of the Southern Pacific Company, and that it will pay the interest upon all bonds now outstanding secured by mortgage liens upon said line of railroad, as such interest shall mature, and will pay the principal of said bonds at maturity, and that it will at all times indemnify and hold harmless the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and Southern Pacific Company from and against the enforcement upon said line of railroad and its appurtenances of the lien of any of said mortgages; and the Union Pacific Railroad Company hereby guarantees the performance of said obligations assumed by the Central Pacific Railway Company. Said lease shall be substantially in the form of the draft of lease hereto attached and marked Exhibit A, except such changes in said form as shall be made by agreement of the parties and approved by the Railroad Commission of California.

12. It is hereby agreed by all the parties hereto that, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, the Central Pacific Railway Company will sell and convey to said Southern Pacific Railroad Company and that said Southern Pacific Railroad Company will purchase the line of railroad of the Central Pacific Railway Company, constructed and under construction, extending from a connection with the line of railroad described in Section 11 hereof at Weed Station, Siskiyou County, California, to a connection with the line of railroad of the Oregon and California Railroad Company at or near Natron Station, Lane County, Oregon, by way of Klamath Falls, Oregon, with its franchises, rights, privileges, immunities and other property appertaining thereto, conveyed by the Oregon Eastern Railway Company to Central Pacific Railway Company by deed dated February 29, 1912. As the consideration for the sale aforesaid said Southern Pacific Railroad Company hereby agrees to assume, and indemnify said Central Pacific Railway Company from and against, any expenditures made by the Central Pacific Railway Company or for its account for construction, additions or betterments in connection with the said railroad and its appurte-

THIRD.

13. The said Southern Pacific Company and Southern Pacific Railroad Company agree to grant, and hereby do grant, to the Central Pacific Railway Company the equal joint use and possession, from the effective date of this agreement, for a term of 999 years, of all that part of the railway and appurtenant property, owned either by the Southern Pacific Company or the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, including telegraph and telephone lines, from the connections thereof with the Central Pacific Railway Company's tracks in Sacramento, California, via Benicia and Port Costa, to connections with the Central Pacific Railway Company's tracks in Oakland, California, including the ferries between Benicia and Port Costa, and ferry slips at Benicia and Port Costa, and any bridge, tube or tunnel substituted for the ferry between Benicia and Port Costa, and the appurtenances thereof, except rolling stock and supplies. A contract shall be executed and delivered by the parties aforesaid, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, covering said joint use and possession, which shall contain a provision for the payment by the Central Pacific Railway Company as an annual rental and consideration for such use and possession, the sum of two and one-half per cent. per annum on the value of the property covered by said agreement, in two equal instalments, on the first day of June and the first day of December in each year, to be increased by two and one-half per cent. per annum upon the actual cost (which shall include transportation and insurance and a just sum to cover the cost of superintendence and management) to the Southern Pacific Company or the Southern Pacific Railroad Company of all improvements, betterments and additions to the property properly chargeable to capital account, which valuation shall be determined by agreement of the parties or by arbitration hereunder; and a provision for the payment by the Central Pacific Railway Company of a proportion of the expense of maintenance and operation of said line of railroad, with its terminals and other appurtenances. Said contract shall contain substantially the terms expressed in, and shall be substantially in the form of, the draft of contract hereto attached and marked Exhibit B, except such changes in said form as shall be made by the parties and approved by the Railroad Commission of California.

14. From the effective date hereof the Central Pacific Railway Company shall be entitled to trackage or running rights for a term of 999 years over the line of railroad of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and Southern Pacific Company between Redwood and San Francisco, for the operation of through freight trains only, without right to do local business—Redwood to be considered local to Southern Pacific Company—with an option, however, to the Central Pacific Railway Company to withdraw from such trackage or running rights at any time within two years from the effective date hereof; the rental to be paid by the Central Pacific Railway Company for such trackage or running rights to be determined by arbitration in the manner hereinafter provided, if the parties hereto are unable to agree thereon.

15. Union Pacific Railroad Company and Central Pacific Railway Company hereby agree that the Central Pacific Railway Company shall, and Central Pacific Railway Company does hereby, grant to the said Southern Pacific Company and said Southern Pacific Railroad Company, or either of them, an option for a period of two years from the effective date hereof to acquire the equal joint use and possession, for the term of 999 years, of the railway owned by the Central Pacific Railway Company, from Newark to Redwood, California, and the appurtenances thereof, except rolling stock and supplies, upon the same terms, conditions and rights provided in the foregoing Section 13 with reference to the joint use and possession of the line of railroad between Sacramento and Oakland. Such use shall extend to the cars or trains of any corporation owned or controlled by the Southern Pacific Company.

16. During the continuance of the option rights in regard to trackage or joint use, or until the parties shall have previously agreed to the contrary, the lines of railway of the Central Pacific Railway Company and the other lines of railway operated by the Southern Pacific Company or controlled by it are to continue to interchange traffic, and either of said lines will continue to handle through trains (but with its own engines and crews) delivered to it by the other lines, upon the rates, terms and conditions now in force, the intent and purpose hereof being that there shall be no interruption of through trains, or change in rates, or of the terms upon which through traffic is handled, by reason of this agreement, or by reason of any sales, transfers or leases herein provided for; but, at any time, upon the demand of either party hereto, in the event of the failure of the parties to agree upon the division of revenue upon joint business, such question shall be submitted to arbitration. The agreement of the parties, or determination by arbitration, first made, as to such division, shall be retroactive to and from the date of the surrender of possession of the properties of the Central Pacific Railway Company by the Southern Pacific Company. Divisions now or heretofore in force between the Southern Pacific Company and the Western Pacific Railway Company, or between the Southern Pacific Company and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company, on traffic between points in California and points east of California, or between the Southern Pacific Company and the Central Pacific Railway Company, are not to be regarded as precedents, or otherwise taken into account, in dividing rates on traffic interchanged between the Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Company, whether such division be by agreement or by arbitration. Any division of such rates, whether by agreement or by arbitration, may be reopened for a new agreement or arbitration at any time after having been in effect for one year, upon the demand of either party, and in the same way from year to year thereafter.

FOURTH.

17. From the effective date hereof, the terminals of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company (or the Southern Pacific Company) and the Central Pacific Railway Company at all junctions of their respective lines within city limits, including industry tracks, shall become and be subject to the joint and equal use of both parties, their lessees or assigns, for a term of 999 years, with the option to either party to withdraw from its use of any of the terminals of the other at any time within two years from the effective date hereof, and the maintenance and operating expenses and taxes thereof shall be apportioned by agreement or by arbitration. The value of such terminals when owned exclusively by one party, and the difference in the value when jointly owned by several parties, shall be ascertained by arbitration, if the parties hereto are unable to agree thereon, and a rental upon the value, or the excess value, as the case may be, at the rate of two and one-half per cent., shall be paid for the use of such terminals by the tenant company. The foregoing grant and provisions contained in this section shall extend in all respects, in favor of the Central Pacific Railway Company, to the freight terminals of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and of the Southern Pacific Company, including roundhouses and shop facilities for light and temporary repairs, in the City and County of San Francisco, but not including shops or roundhouses at other points; and, in favor of either the Southern Pacific Company and Southern Pacific Railroad Company on the one part, or the Central Pacific Railway Company on the other part, to all freight and passenger terminals at Oakland, Oakland Mole, Alameda and Alameda Mole, and all ferries between Oakland and San Francisco, and Oakland Mole and San Francisco, and Alameda Mole and San Francisco, and ferry slips and landings in San Francisco, and the passenger buildings adjacent thereto, owned or leased by the other of said parties. But the ownership and operation of electric lines, and stations and terminals thereon, are to remain as at present until otherwise disposed of, with an equitable apportionment of the earnings and expenses in the meantime.

18. The Central Pacific Railway Company agrees that it will use and employ its shops and shop facilities, roundhouses and other appurtenances at Sacramento, Oakland and other points in California for the repair and maintenance of the engines and cars and for other shop work of the Southern Pacific Company and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company in the same manner as it uses and employs the same for the repair and maintenance of its own equipment and for its own other shop work, without discrimination, for five years from the effective date hereof; the compensation of said Central Pacific Railway Company for the repair and shop work and shop facilities to be fixed upon some equitable basis, including a return upon the value of the plant, and if the parties are unable to agree upon such compensation the same shall be determined by arbitration as hereinafter provided.

FIFTH.

19. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees to sell, assign and transfer to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company hereby agrees to purchase, immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, $3,000,000, face value, of First Mortgage Bonds of the Central California Railway Company, $1,000,000, face value, of First Mortgage Bonds of the Chico and Northern Railroad Company, $8,500,000, face value, of First Mortgage Bonds of the Nevada and California Railway Company, $2,500,000, face value, of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Sacramento Southern Railroad Company, and $3,084,252.33, face value, of Extensions Purchase

Notes of the Central Pacific Railway Company, dated March 1, 1912, now held by the Southern Pacific Company, for and in consideration of the payment by the Union Pacific Railroad Company of a sum equal to the aggregate principal amount of said bonds and notes, together with the accrued interest thereon, (except that the consideration for the purchase of said First Mortgage Bonds of the Chico and Northern Railroad Company shall be the book cost thereof to the Southern Pacific Company), and the Southern Pacific Company agrees to deliver to the Union Pacific Railroad Company the bonds and notes aforesaid; and the Southern Pacific Company further agrees to sell, assign and transfer to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company agrees to purchase, at the face value thereof and accrued interest, all other indebtedness of the Central Pacific Railway Company to the Southern Pacific Company, on account of advances or otherwise, representing expenditures for construction and betterments made since the 29th day of February, 1912, and on account of materials and supplies not paid for out of earnings, in connection with the lines of railroad formerly owned respectively by the Central California Railway Company, Chico and Northern Railroad Company, Nevada and California Railway Company, Sacramento Southern Railroad Company, Goose Lake and Southern Railway Company, Fernley and Lassen Railway Company and Modoc Northern Railway Company, acquired by the Central Pacific Railway Company by deeds of the seven companies aforesaid, each dated February 29, 1912.

20. The Central Pacific Railway Company hereby assumes and undertakes to perform all the obligations assumed by the Southern Pacific Company in that certain contract with the Red River Lumber Company, dated the 29th day of January, 1912, except as to rates on traffic destined to points on lines which will be operated by the Southern Pacific Company subsequently to the effective date of this contract, and their connections, and as to such rates the Central Pacific Railway Company agrees to co-operate with the Southern Pacific Company in granting the same.

21. The Central Pacific Railway Company and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company (or the Southern Pacific Company) hereby mutually agree each to assume any expenditures for surveys of lines made as connections and branches of its lines or otherwise for its use or account which are now outstanding and carried in suspense by the other of said parties.

22. All indebtedness and accounts (including expenditures on account of material and supplies not paid for out of earnings, which material and supplies the Central Pacific Railway Company hereby agrees to buy at an agreed or arbitrated price) existing between the Central Pacific Railway Company and Southern Pacific Company, for which provision is not otherwise made in this agreement (except such as may be evidenced by unmatured bonds of the Central Pacific Railway Company guaranteed by the Southern Pacific Company) shall be adjusted as of the effective date hereof, and the balance due after offsetting the mutual indebtedness and accounts, and the purchase price of the notes, securities and indebtedness which the Union Pacific Railroad Company agrees to buy under Section 19 hereof, may be paid by the debtor party on the effective date of this agreement, or payment may be postponed, in whole or in part, at the option of said party, to the date of the last payment by the Union Pacific Railroad Company of the consideration and purchase price of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company. In case of such postponement, interest at the rate of five per cent. shall be paid from the effective date of this agreement on any and all amounts so postponed, and such settlement shall be subject to such future adjustments, from time to time, as may be necessary to correct the balance first struck and paid as aforesaid.

23. The Union Pacific Railroad Company hereby agrees to indemnify and save harmless said Southern Pacific Company from and against all liability, existing or which may hereafter arise, by reason of the guaranty by said Southern Pacific Company of bonds of said Central Pacific Railway Company now issued and outstanding, or which shall hereafter be issued under:

(a) The First Refunding Mortgage of said Central Pacific Railway Company to Central Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, dated the 1st day of August, 1899.

(b) The Three and One-Half Per Cent. Mortgage of said Central Pacific Railway Company to the United States Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, dated the 1st day of August, 1899.

(c) The Through Short Line Mortgage of said Central Pacific Railway Company to the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Trustee, dated the 1st day of October, 1904.

(d) The European Loan Indenture.

Said Southern Pacific Company, however, agrees that it will continue to execute its guaranty of all bonds which shall hereafter be issued by the Central Pacific Railway Company, under any of the three mortgages described in the foregoing subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of this Section, pursuant to the provisions of said mortgages for the interchange of registered bonds and coupon bonds, or for the issue of bonds in lieu of or in substitution for mutilated or destroyed bonds. And the said Central Pacific Railway Company agrees that it will not permit the issue of any additional bonds under its Through Short Line Mortgage, except pursuant to the provisions of said mortgage for the interchange of registered and coupon bonds or for the issue of bonds in lieu of or in substitution for mutilated or destroyed bonds.

24. The Union Pacific Railroad Company hereby agrees to assume and perform all existing obligations now imposed upon the Southern Pacific Company in respect of the lines of the Central Pacific Railway Company (except the line of railroad from Tehama to the boundary line between the States of Oregon and California) under telegraph, Pullman, mail, express and all other contracts; and all allowances and other compensation and benefits accruing to the Southern Pacific Company under such contracts shall be equitably apportioned. The existing hospital arrangements of the parties are to be continued until otherwise agreed by the parties, with an interest allowance on some proper basis for the hospital improvements in favor of the company owning the same. It is understood that some adjustment shall be made with reference to the pension rules and regulations of the parties and a proper adjustment and apportionment of pension payments.

25. The Union Pacific Railroad Company and the Central Pacific Railway Company hereby agree to proceed with reasonable diligence after the surrender of the possession of the railways and other properties of the Central Pacific Railway Company now operated by said Southern Pacific Company to effect, as far as such substitution shall be permitted under the European Loan Indenture, a substitution of collateral of said Central Pacific Railway Company or of said Union Pacific Railroad Company for collateral of the Southern Pacific Company heretofore pledged and now held under the provisions of said European Loan Indenture, and also to use their best endeavors, in so far as the same shall not involve expense or cost to Central Pacific Railway Company and Union Pacific Railroad Company, to secure a release or rescission of the covenants and agreements contained in Section 3 of Article Three of said Indenture, and as to any collateral owned by the Southern Pacific Company so pledged and held (and which it covenants in said indenture not to sell or pledge) which shall not have been released and surrendered to said Southern Pacific Company within a reasonable period, or any shares of stock which the Southern Pacific Company is prohibited from selling or pledging under the covenants and agreements aforesaid, the Union Pacific Railroad Company will deliver to said Southern Pacific Company, under a suitable agreement for the protection of the same, other collateral equal in value to the collateral of the Southern Pacific Company then remaining so pledged and held, or so prohibited from sale or pledge. If the parties fail to agree respecting the relative value of such collateral, the matter in dispute shall be determined by arbitration, as hereinafter provided.

26. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees duly and faithfully to observe and perform all the terms, covenants, conditions, and requirements contained in the European Loan Indenture to be observed and performed on its part, and not to permit or suffer any act, matter or thing whereby any default shall be created or incurred in accordance with the terms of said European Loan Indenture on account of the breach of any of the terms, covenants, conditions and requirements on its part to be observed or performed; and that in the event that the bonds outstanding under said European Loan Indenture shall become or be declared due and payable prior to the maturity thereof on account of any act, matter or thing done or suffered by the Southern Pacific Company contrary to the provisions of this Section 26, the Southern Pacific Company will pay upon demand to the Central Pacific Railway Company as liquidated damages a sum equal to such proportion of the amount of the aggregate discount, commissions and expenses incurred by the Central Pacific Railway Company upon and in connection with the bonds issued under said European Loan Indenture as the period then remaining prior to the first day of March, 1946, shall bear to the entire period of 35 years during which said bonds were by their terms to have remained outstanding.

SIXTH.

27. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees that, except in the regular course of carrying on and conducting the ordinary business and operations of the Central Pacific Railway Company, none of the property and assets of said Central Pacific Railway Company has been since the 2nd day of December, 1912, or shall be, assigned, transferred, conveyed or otherwise disposed of, before the surrender to said Central Pacific Railway Company of the possession of the properties of that Company now held and operated by the Southern Pacific Company, and before the reconstitution of the Board of Directors of said Central Pacific Railway Company, as provided in Section 2, Article First, hereof; and that, with the exception aforesaid, no obligations of the Central Pacific Railway Company have been incurred or released since the said 2d day of December, 1912, or shall be incurred or released before the surrender of the said property to the Central Pacific Railway Company and the reconstitution of the Board of Directors of the Central Pacific Railway Company, as aforesaid; and that since said date no dividend on the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company has been declared, and that none shall be declared before the surrender of the possession of said property to the Central Pacific Railway Company and the reconstitution of the Board of Directors of said Company as aforesaid, except dividends at the rate of six per cent. per annum on the common capital stock from June 1, 1912, to January 1, 1913, and dividends at the rate of four per cent. per annum on the preferred capital stock from August 1, 1912, to January 1, 1913. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees to pay to Union Pacific Railroad Company, upon demand after the effective date of this agreement, the proportionate part of any dividend received by, or credited to it, on account of its holding of capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company, for any period subsequent to January 1, 1913, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. from January 1, 1913. The Oregon Short Line Railroad Company shall be entitled to retain the dividend payable to stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company registered on the books of that Company on December 2, 1912, and received by said Oregon Short Line Railroad Company on January 2, 1913.

28. The Southern Pacific Company hereby undertakes and agrees that in the interval between December 2, 1912, and the surrender of the lease and property of the Central Pacific Railway Company to the Central Pacific Railway Company no changes have been or will be made in rates, divisions, revenue or service of the Central Pacific Railway that will prejudice the interests of the Union Pacific Railroad Company or discriminate against the Central Pacific Railway Company in favor of the Southern Pacific Company.

29. The Southern Pacific Company hereby agrees that all interest or other obligations of the Central Pacific Railway Company and all taxes maturing and becoming payable before the surrender of the possession of the properties of the said Central Pacific Railway Company now operated by said Southern Pacific Company shall be paid for account of the Central Pacific Railway Company, and that said Southern Pacific Company will advance any funds necessary for that purpose if the said Central Pacific Railway Company shall not have the same readily available; and further agrees that the roadway and structures and the equipment and other properties and facilities of the Central Pacific Railway Company shall be maintained and the operation of the properties of the said Central Pacific Railway Company shall be carried on and conducted by the said Southern Pacific Company in strict accordance with the arrangements and practices heretofore existing, until the surrender of said properties to the possession of said Central Pacific Railway Company.

30. It is mutually agreed by all the parties hereto that all leases, deeds or other instruments either necessary or proper to carry out any of the provisions of this agreement shall be executed and delivered immediately upon the effective date of this agreement, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and in each case with such evidence of corporate action, the regularity of meetings and otherwise, as shall be reasonably required by counsel for any party in interest in order to establish the validity of the title to any property acquired as contemplated by the terms hereof; and that each party hereto will do, execute, acknowledge and deliver, or will cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered, all and every such further acts, transfers and assurances for the better assuring, conveying and confirming unto any other party the benefits intended hereby to be conferred and for more completely effecting and accomplishing the purposes of this agreement.

31. The Southern Pacific Company and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company hereby agree, from time to time, to convey and transfer or cause to be conveyed and transferred to the Central Pacific Railway Company, upon the payment of the cost and carrying charges, which the Central Pacific Railway Company agrees to pay, the title to any property, except equipment, which has been acquired by the Southern Pacific Company or by any person or corporation at its request for the uses and purposes of the Central Pacific Railway Company; and the Central Pacific Railway Company hereby agrees in like manner and upon the same terms to convey or transfer, or cause to be conveyed or transferred, to the Southern Pacific Company or the Southern Pacific Railroad Company any property, except equipment, which has been acquired by the Central Pacific Railway Company or by any person or corporation at its request for the uses and purposes of said other companies or either of them; but the obligation herein contained, as to property standing in the name of either the Southern Pacific Railroad Company or the Central Pacific Railway Company, shall not apply to any such property to which the mortgages of said companies have attached.

32. The said Southern Pacific Company will cause to be executed and delivered to the Central Pacific Railway Company, immediately upon the effective date hereof, all instruments necessary or appropriate to cancel all leases or other instruments whereby any property of the Central Pacific Railway Company has been leased to or is held by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company or any other company controlled by the Southern Pacific Company, or by any person for the Southern Pacific Company; and in like manner the Central Pacific Railway Company will at the same time cause to be executed and delivered all instruments necessary or appropriate to cancel all leases whereby any property of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company or of the Southern Pacific Company has been leased to or is held by the Central Pacific Railway Company or by any person for it.

SEVENTH.

33. If at any time a question shall arise under this agreement as to which the parties cannot agree and which by the express terms of this agreement is to be determined by arbitration, such question shall be submitted to the arbitrament of five persons. The party demanding such submission shall give to the other party notice of such demand stating specifically the question to be submitted for decision and nominating a person to act as one referee. If at the expiration of twenty (20) days from the receipt of such notice the party receiving it has not notified the party demanding the reference of its nomination of a second referee, the party making the demand may make such selection. The first and second referees chosen shall select three disinterested persons familiar with business and experienced in railway management and affairs, and when the Board is complete it shall fix a date and place for the hearing, of which the parties shall be severally notified. If the first and second referees chosen shall be unable to agree upon the other referees, or any of them, such other referee or referees as to which they shall fail to agree shall be appointed upon ten days' notice, upon motion of either party, by the then senior Circuit Judge of the United States in and for the Second Judicial Circuit, or, in his absence from the Circuit or inability to act, then by the Circuit Judge of said Circuit holding the next oldest commission. After hearing the testimony and arguments which may be submitted by each party the referees or a majority of them if they agree upon an award shall state the same in writing, which when delivered to both parties shall be binding and conclusive upon each, and each party hereby expressly agrees to be bound conclusively thereby. For the purposes of an arbitration under the provisions of this section the Southern Pacific Company and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company jointly shall be deemed one party, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company and Central Pacific Railway Company jointly shall be deemed one party, and action hereunder by, or service hereunder upon, either the Southern Pacific Company or the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall be deemed binding upon both, and in like manner any action hereunder by, or service hereunder upon, either the Union Pacific Railroad Company or the Central Pacific Railway Company shall be deemed binding upon both. The board of referees making any final award hereunder shall determine in its discretion by which party the fees and expenses of the arbitration shall be paid or shall apportion such fees and expenses between the parties, and such fees and expenses shall be forthwith paid by the party or parties liable therefor in accordance with such adjudication of the arbitrators. If either party shall refuse to keep and perform any award made as aforesaid the adverse party may enforce the same by proper proceedings in any court of law or equity.

EIGHTH.

34. This agreement is made and signed by the parties hereto subject to the conditions hereinafter expressed and shall not become binding or effective for any purpose, or as to any of its provisions, unless or until each and all of said conditions shall have been satisfied, to wit:

(1) That a decree of the District Court of the United States for the District of Utah in the Merger Suit shall be entered, approving the plan hereinbefore recited for the disposition of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, and approving this agreement.

(2) That the Railroad Commission of the State of California shall consent to and approve (a) the lease of the line of railroad between Tehama and the Oregon-California boundary provided in Section 11 of this agreement; (b) the sale and conveyance of so much of the line of railroad between Weed Station, California, and Natron Station, Oregon, provided in Section 12 of this agreement, as lies within the State of California; (c) the contract for the equal joint use and possession of the line of railroad between Sacramento and Oakland, California, provided in Section 13 of this agreement; (d) the provision contained in Section 14 for trackage or running rights between Redwood and San Francisco, California, and (e) the provisions of Section 17 as to joint use of terminals, etc.

(3) That the French Banks named in the European Loan Indenture shall consent to the sale of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company and to the surrender and cancellation by the Southern Pacific Company of its lease of the property of the Central Pacific Railway Company herein provided.

(4) That an agreement shall be made with an underwriting syndicate approved by the Executive Committee of the Southern Pacific Company for the purchase of the entire amount of one hundred twenty-six million six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($126,650,000), par value, of capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company which shall not be subscribed for by the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and Southern Pacific Company pursuant to the offer of subscription rights contemplated in the foregoing Section 6.

Upon the satisfaction of each and all of the conditions hereinbefore in this Section 34 expressed, this agreement shall immediately become effective and operative, and that date shall be deemed the "effective date of this agreement" as that term is used in this agreement.

35. This agreement shall inure to, and be binding upon, the successors and assigns of the parties hereto, and all the rights, privileges and options hereinbefore conferred upon, or granted to, the parties hereto, shall inure to the benefit of, and the use by, any companies now or hereafter leased, owned or controlled through ownership of a majority of the capital stock by said parties, either, or any of them.

WHEREAS, the Southern Company did heretofore execute its certain Four Per Cent. Mortgage (Central Pacific Stock Collateral), to the Union Trust Company of New York, as trustee, dated the 1st day of August, 1899, to secure the payment of certain bonds, and did deposit with the said Union Trust Company of New York, as collateral under said mortgage, certain shares of the capital stock of the Central Company, then owned by the Southern Company, and the Southern Company did afterwards execute its certain Supplemental Mortgage (Central Pacific Stock Collateral), to the Union Trust Company of New York, as trustee, dated the 29th day of December, 1899, and did deposit with the said Union Trust Company of New York, as collateral under the said mortgages, certain shares of the capital stock of the Central Company, then owned by the Southern Company, and it is provided in each of said mortgages that in case the stock of the Central Company, so pledged with the Union Trust Company of New York, shall be sold under the provisions of said mortgages in reference to the sale of such pledged stocks, in consequence of a default of the Southern Company thereunder, any lease of the property of the Central Company shall terminate; and

WHEREAS, the Pacific Company desires to lease the property of the Central Company hereinbefore described; and

WHEREAS, the property now owned by the Central Company is operated by the Southern Company under lease;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto for themselves, their successors and assigns, have mutually agreed as follows:

FIRST. The Central Company, in consideration of the premises and of the rents and covenants herein reserved and contained on the part of the Pacific Company to be paid and performed, does by these presents grant, demise, let and lease unto the Pacific Company, its successors and assigns, all and singular the railroad and telegraph lines of the Central Company extending from Tehama, in Tehama County, California, to the connection with the line of railroad of the Oregon and California Railroad Company at the boundary line between the states of California and Oregon, the rights of way for said railroad and telegraph line, and all lands used for any and all purposes in connection with the working, maintenance and operation of the same, and all easements and appurtenances, except equipment, belonging or in anywise appertaining thereto and also all rights, powers, privileges and franchises, now owned or possessed by the Central Company in connection with said railroad and telegraph line, together with the rents, issues, and profits of all of said property hereby demised, and each and every part thereof.

To have and to hold the said railroad, telegraph line, appurtenances, rights, privileges and franchises, together with the rents, issues and profits thereof, unto the said Pacific Company, its successors and assigns, for its and their own proper use and benefit for the term of nine hundred and ninety-nine years from and after the day of , 1913, subject, however, to termination upon the happening of the events herein stated. And the said Pacific Company during the said term shall have the sole and exclusive right, power and authority to hold, occupy, use, enjoy, control, manage and operate the same, and to regulate, fix, vary, collect, demand, receive and dispose of all the rates, tolls, revenues and charges to accrue thereon or therefrom, subject, however, to the lien of the mortgages hereinbefore referred to, it being intended hereby to place and put the said Pacific Company in the lieu and stead of the Central Company, and with all the rights of the Central Company in respect to said property, the said Pacific Company, its successors and assigns, yielding and paying therefor, to the Central Company, its successors and assigns, at the times and in the manner hereinafter provided, the yearly rents hereinafter specified, and keeping and performing all and singular the covenants hereinafter set forth to be kept and performed by the said Pacific Company.

The Central Company will pay principal and interest due upon its bonds now outstanding and will indemnify, protect and keep harmless the said Pacific Company, from any and all liability, damage or expense on account of any indebtedness, liability or obligation, heretofore or hereafter contracted or incurred by the Central Company, and the Pacific Company may and shall deduct and retain from any amounts becoming due and payable to the Central Company under the terms hereof such sums of money as it may be obliged to pay for the protection of its rights under this indenture by reason of the default of the Central Company in keeping or performing the covenants or agreements herein contained.

THIRD. The Pacific Company will make to the Central Company, at San Francisco, California, as the Central Company may designate, a payment of dollars ($) per annum, in two equal installments on the first day of June and the first day of December in each year.

FOURTH. business or income of the same, and upon the Central Company in respect to the property hereby demised.

SIXTH. Should the Pacific Company at any time or times hereafter during the existence of this lease fail to make any payment when due which it is obligated to make by this contract, or fail in any other respect to perform this agreement and such default continue for ninety days after notice in writing of intention to terminate this lease, given by the Central Company to the Pacific Company, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the Central Company, its successors and assigns, at their option, to enter without process of law into and upon the said railroads and other property hereby demised and every part thereof, and to have and to hold all such property, together with all the additions and improvements which shall have been made to the same, and all right, title and interest whatever of the Pacific Company in and to the said property shall thereupon wholly cease and terminate; but such re-entry shall not waive or prejudice any claim or right of the Central Company to or for damages against the Pacific Company, or the Southern Company, on account of such non-payment or on account of non-performance or breach of the terms of this lease; provided, however, that nothing contained in this paragraph Sixth shall require the Pacific Company to pay any tax, assessment, charge or lien so long as the Pacific Company in good faith and by appropriate proceedings shall contest the validity thereof.

This lease shall also terminate, and all rights of the Pacific Company or the Southern Company herein shall terminate, and the Central Company shall be entitled to enter into possession of the property to the extent and with the effect as above provided in case the stocks pledged with the Union Trust Company of New York, as trustee, under the Four Per Cent. Mortgage (Central Pacific Stock Collateral), dated the 1st day of August, 1899, and under the Southern Company's Supplemental Mortgage (Central Pacific Stock Collateral), dated the 29th day of December, 1899, as security for the Southern Company's Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral), shall be sold under the provisions of said mortgages, or either of them, in reference to the sale of such pledged stock in consequence of a default of the Southern Company under said mortgages.

SEVENTH. Whenever said railroad and other property can be conveyed by the Central Company free from the mortgage liens now existing thereon, the Pacific Company shall be entitled, for two years thereafter, to purchase, at its option, evidenced by a notice in writing given to the Central Company, the railroads and other property hereby demised, at and for the value of dollars, to be paid to the Central Company.

EIGHTH. If at any time a question shall arise touching the construction of this contract, or concerning the observance or performance of any of its covenants or provisions, upon which question the parties cannot agree, such question shall be submitted to the arbitrament of five persons. The party demanding such reference shall give to the other party notice of such demand stating specifically the question to be submitted for decision and nominating a person to act as one referee. If at the expiration of twenty days from the receipt of such notice the party receiving it has not notified the party demanding the reference of its nomination of a second referee, the party making the demand may make such selection. The first and second referees chosen shall select three disinterested persons familiar with business and experienced in railway management and affairs, and when the board is complete the referees shall fix a day and place for the hearing of which the parties shall be severally notified. If the first and second referees chosen shall be unable to agree upon the other referees or any of them, such referee or referees may be appointed upon ten days' notice upon motion of either party by the judge of any court of the United States within the State of California, holding the senior commission and in his absence by the judge holding the next oldest commission. After hearing the testimony and arguments which may be submitted by each party, the referees, or a majority of them, if they agree upon an award, shall state it in writing, which, when delivered to both parties, shall be binding and conclusive upon each, and each party hereby expressly agrees to be bound conclusively thereby.

The Board of Referees making any final award hereunder, shall determine in its discretion, by which of the parties the fees and expenses of the arbitration shall be paid, or shall apportion such fees and expenses between the parties, and such fees and expenses shall be forthwith paid by the party or parties liable therefor, in accordance with such adjudication of the Referees.

Immediately after any award, each party will comply with and fully perform said award, and will make such payments and restitutions as may be in and by such award required of it to be made. If either party shall refuse to keep and perform any award, the adverse party may enforce the same by apt proceedings in any court of law or equity.

The books and papers of both parties as far as they relate to any matter submitted to arbitration shall be open to the examination of the arbitrators; and until the arbitrators shall make their award upon any question submitted to them, the business, settlements and payments to be transacted and made under the terms of this agreement shall continue to be transacted and made in the manner and form existing prior to the arising of such question.

EIGHTH. It is agreed that this lease and all rights thereunder may be assigned to the Southern Pacific Company; and the Southern Pacific Company hereby guarantees the performance of this contract by the Pacific Company, and executes this contract in pursuance of that obligation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Central Pacific Company, the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, and the Southern Pacific Company have caused this instrument to be executed under the corporate seals and under the hands of their respective presidents and secretaries, EXHIBIT B.

Contract made the ..... day of ....., A. D. 1913, between the SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY, hereinafter called the "Southern Company", a corporation of the State of Kentucky; SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, hereinafter called the "Pacific Company", a corporation of the States of California, Arizona and New Mexico, and the CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY, hereinafter called the "Central Company", a corporation of the State of Utah.

WHEREAS, the Pacific Company owns a line of railroad in the State of California between Sacramento and Oakland, via Benicia and Port Costa, together with terminal property at Sacramento and Oakland, and intermediate points; and the Southern Company now operates the property of the Pacific Company above mentioned, under an agreement of lease between the Pacific Company and the Southern Company, and the Southern Company and the Pacific Company have agreed to grant to the Central Company the use of said railroad and other property of the Pacific Company, at the rental, for the term, and on the conditions hereinafter stated:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual dependent promises stated in this contract, the parties agree:

ARTICLE I.

SEC. 1. The Pacific Company and the Southern Company grant to the Central Company the equal joint possession and use, together with the Southern Company, of all that part of the railway and appurtenant property, owned either by the Pacific Company or the Southern Company, including telegraph and telephone lines, from the connections with the Central Company's tracks in Sacramento, California, via Benicia and Port Costa, to connections with the Central Company's tracks in Oakland, California, including the ferries between Benicia and Port Costa, and ferry slips at Benicia and Port Costa, and any bridge, tube or tunnel substituted for the ferry between Benicia and Port Costa, and also all main tracks, spur and side tracks, depots, fences, stations, tanks, warehouses, freight-houses, roundhouses, machine shops, and all other buildings, fixtures, improvements, additions and betterments, of whatever kind or description now owned or held, or which may hereafter be owned or held for the use of said railways, telegraph and telephone lines, or in connection with the working, maintenance and operation of the same, and also all lands, tenements, hereditaments, ways and rights of way now owned or held, or which may hereafter be owned, held or possessed for said railways, telegraph and telephone lines, and for any and all purposes in connection with the construction, working, maintenance and operation of the same, or any or all of them, and all the easements, privileges and appurtenances of every kind and nature, except rolling stock and supplies thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining.

The Central Company, by its own employees and equipment, may do, and transact over, upon and by means of such railway and appurtenances, and all additions, improvements and betterments thereto, all such business as is or hereafter may be, carried on by a railway and common carrier, including mail and express, subject only to the terms and conditions hereinafter stated.

SEC. 2. The Southern Company will have the general control, management and administration of said railway and appurtenances, and will maintain and at all times keep the same in good condition and repair, and suitable for the business of all users of the property. It will pay the taxes thereon, except taxes based on earnings, and comply with all the regulations prescribed by law with respect thereto. Assessments and property taxes shall be borne half and half by the Central Company and the Southern Company. Each party will pay any assessments or taxes based on its gross earnings. The Southern Company will furnish water and other supplies, incident to the maintenance and operation of the property jointly used. It shall not be bound to furnish any fuel or other supplies, except water, for the trains or equipment of the Central Company, nor for the special or exclusive use in any manner of the Central Company, or the officers or employes thereof. The Southern Company shall have unrestricted power to change, add to, better and repair the property as it may deem advisable, including the right to provide such additional main and other tracks as it shall deem necessary, not however so as by such changes, additions, betterments and repairs, permanently to impair its usefulness to the Central Company. If the Central Company shall, at any time, deem the construction of additional main track or tracks, or other tracks, necessary to the proper conduct of its business, and the Southern Company be unwilling to construct any such additional main or other track, then the Central Company shall have the right to submit the question of the reasonable necessity of such track or tracks, to arbitration as hereinafter provided. Should the Southern Company change the character of its motive power, and use some form of power other than steam, and for the purpose of such change add to the leased property facilities of which the Central Company makes no use and obtains no benefit, or should the Central Company create its own roundhouses and oil tanks, or other fueling or coaling facilities, which it is given the right to do under reasonable conditions as to connections with the line, then the Central Company will not be required to pay any share of the interest charge or the expense of maintenance and operation of the said facilities created by the Southern Company, or to pay any share of the interest charge or expense of maintenance and operation of roundhouses and oil tanks, or other fueling or coaling facilities, created by the Southern Company subsequent to the date that the Central Company creates its own facilities, unless the Central Company should use such added facilities, in which case the Central Company will join in paying interest charge, and other expenses, on the basis hereinafter stated in this contract. In case the Central Company creates its own roundhouses and fueling or coaling facilities on the property of the Southern Company, the Southern Company shall have the right to purchase them on reasonable notice at a fair price, for the benefit of all the users of the property, in which case all users of the property shall pay on the basis hereinafter stated their share of interest on cost and expense of maintenance and operation of the facilities so purchased. Should the Central Company desire to use the special facilities created for the purpose of change in motive power, the Southern Company will permit the use of such facilities on the basis of a pro rata share of interest at five per cent. per annum on their value, and of maintenance and operation cost based on use.

Should the Central Company change the nature of its motive power, and use some form of power other than steam, then for the purpose of such change the Central Company, at its own expense, can add to the leased property the necessary facilities for such change of power, and shall be allowed to exclusively use the same, but the Southern Company shall have the right to purchase them on reasonable notice, and at a fair price, for joint benefit, in which case the parties shall pay on the basis hereinafter stated their share of interest on cost, and the expense of maintenance and operation of the facilities so purchased.

SEC. 3. The Southern Company will order and direct the movement of engines, cars and trains under such reasonable rules and regulations customary among railways as it may adopt from time to time. All regulations and train schedules shall be equal, just and fair and shall not unjustly discriminate against either party. All passenger trains shall be given preference over other trains, and the trains of each of the parties shall be given equal despatch according to their class.

The Central Company shall have in every respect the same rights and privileges in the transaction of its business that the Southern Company has as to its business.

SEC. 4. All agents and employes engaged upon said railway by the Southern Company shall do the business of the Central Company without discrimination. Such agents and employes shall not solicit business, or recommend the routing thereof, but in all respects shall act with entire impartiality between the parties using the property. All agents collecting or receiving money shall be, in so far as concerns the business and revenues of the Central Company, the agents and employes of that company, and shall report and remit directly to it, and shall keep the Central Company's accounts and records, and make such reports to the Central Company as to its business, and settle with and account to the Central Company as often and as fully as may be required by it, and the Central Company may bond such agents or employes, or require them to furnish bond, and the Southern Company shall not be liable to the Central Company for their acts, neglects or defaults. Any joint employee shall be removed from service on the property on the request, in writing, of the Central Company. Any employee engaged in the service of the Central Company upon or about trains, coal bunkers, oil tanks, or roundhouses shall be withdrawn from service on the property on request of the Southern Company, in writing, giving reasonable grounds for such withdrawal.

SEC. 5. The Southern Company will maintain at all stations, other than Sacramento, facilities adequate and suitable for the business. Failing so to do, the Central Company may create its own station facilities, under reasonable conditions as to connection with the leased premises. The Southern Company shall have the right to purchase, at a fair price, such facilities, when built on its property, in which case the facilities will be for joint use of the parties, and the price paid therefor added to the basis of rental like other improvements, betterments and additions.

SEC. 6. Branch lines of either party shall be allowed to make connection with the railway at suitable and convenient parsgraph; but the switching of cars within actual yard limits, or the movement of work trains engaged in working upon the joint line, shall not be counted.

Transportation of supplies, materials, and other freights, originating at competitive points off the joint property, and necessary for the maintenance or repair of the property, or additions or betterments thereto, shall be routed between the Central Company and the Southern Company so that the service performed beyond Sacramento and Oakland may be equitably divided between the two companies, and as nearly equal as may be.

SEC. 10. The Central Company will make all payments to the Southern Company at the City of San Francisco. At the option of the Southern Company, payments for the rental shall be made in gold coin of the present standard. Bills for the maintenance and operation of the line shall be rendered monthly by the Southern Company as soon as may be after the close of each month, and shall be paid within thirty (30) days thereafter. Payment of such bills shall not be delayed for errors which are not serious or important, but they shall be paid as rendered, notwithstanding any error of ordinary character likely to occur in railroad accounts, the necessary corrections to be made in subsequent bills.

SEC. 11. The books, records, vouchers and papers of the Southern Company or the Pacific Company, touching or material to the cost of improvements, betterments or additions to the property, or touching or material to the cost of maintenance or operation, at all times shall be freely open to the examination of the Central Company.

SEC. 12. Should the Central Company fail to make any payment when due, which it is obligated to make by this contract, or fail in any other respect to perform the agreement, and such default continue for six (6) months after notice in writing of intention to terminate the contract, given by the Southern Company to the Central Company, the Southern Company may, at its election declare this agreement terminated, and may exclude the Central Company from all use of the property described herein; provided, that failure to make any payment which is the subject for arbitration or litigation, shall not be deemed cause of forfeiture hereunder.

ARTICLE III.

SEC. 13. The Southern Company shall be bound to use only reasonable and customary care, skill and diligence in maintaining and repairing the roadway, tracks, structures and appliances of and pertaining to the said railway and in managing and operating the same; and all employes of the Southern Company (except enginemen and trainmen) employed in maintaining, repairing or operating the railway, or in dispatching, giving orders for or directing movement of trains, or in performing any other service for the common benefit of the railway companies using the property, shall, for the purposes of the contract, be regarded, while engaged in such work, as joint employes of all the railway companies using the property. Enginemen and trainmen of any work train engaged in maintaining, repairing or adding to the property, shall likewise be deemed joint employes. The Central Company shall not, by reason of any defect in the property, or by reason of the failure or neglect of the Southern Company to repair such defect, or by reason of the failure or neglect of any joint employee as herein defined, make against the Southern Company any claim or demand for loss, damage or injury arising from such defect, neglect or failure; but should the Southern Company fail to repair any such defect within a reasonable time after being notified in writing so to do by the Central Company specifying the defect, then the Central Company may make the necessary repairs at once, which will be paid by the Southern Company and taken over in its bill for maintenance and operation.

Each railway company from time to time using the property will assume, bear, settle and pay all loss, cost, damage or injury which the property jointly used, its property or property in its custody, or which its employes or passengers may suffer while it is running its engines, cars or trains upon or over any part of the which may be submited by each party, the referees, or a majority of them, if they agree upon an award, shall state it in writing, which, when delivered to both parties, shall be binding and conclusive upon each, and each party hereby expressly agrees to be bound conclusively thereby.

The Board of Referees making any final award hereunder, shall determine in its discretion, by which of the parties the fees and expenses of the arbitration shall be paid, or shall apportion such fees and expenses between the parties, and such fees and expenses shall be forthwith paid by the party or parties liable therefor, in accordance with such adjudication of the Referees.

Immediately after any award, each party will make such changes in the conduct of its business, or such payments or restitution, as the case may be, as are in and by such award required of it to be made. If either party shall refuse to keep and perform any award, the adverse party may enforce the same by apt proceedings in any court of law or equity.

The books and papers of both parties as far as they relate to any matter submitted to arbitration shall be open to the examination of the arbitrators; and until the arbitrators shall make their award upon any question submitted to them, the business, settlements and payments to be transacted and made under the terms of this agreement shall continue to be transacted and made in the manner and form existing prior to the arising of such question.

SEC. 16. As long as any arrangement exists between the Southern Company and the Pacific Company, whereby the Southern Company is legally entitled to have the possession, control and management of the property herein described, the Southern Company and the Pacific Company, shall be regarded for all purposes under this agreement, including arbitration, jointly as one company, represented by the Southern Company. Whenever and as soon as the Southern Company is not entitled, as between itself and the Pacific Company, to the possession, control and management of the property of the Pacific Company described herein, and the Pacific Company enters into the possession of its own property, and the control and management thereof, then the words " Southern Company " as used in Secs. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 in Article I. herein, and in Article II., and in the preceding paragraphs of Article III. hereof, shall be construed to mean the Pacific Company in connection with the property herein described then owned by the Pacific Company and in its possession and shall be construed to mean the Southern Company in connection with the property herein described then owned by the Southern Company, and the payments to be made by the Central Company on account of rental and the expense of maintenance and operation, shall be divided between the Pacific Company and the Southern Company, as evidenced by agreement in writing, made between the Pacific Company and the Southern Company, and delivered to the Central Company, and in case the Pacific Company and the Southern Company be unable to agree, then such payment so required to be made by the Central Company, shall be divided by arbitration as provided in this agreement, the Southern Company being regarded as one party and the Pacific Company as another party in such arbitration.

No additional companies shall be admitted to use the property except by the written consent of both the Pacific Company and the Central Company but the rights of each party hereto shall be deemed appurtenant to and running with its railroad, and it may sell, assign, lease or mortgage as an entirety the said rights in connection with, and as a part of its railroads. Covenants and agreements herein contained shall apply to and bind the parties hereto, their successors, assigns and lessees, and shall inure in favor of the successors, assigns and lessees of the parties in whose benefit made.

SEC. 17. This contract shall take effect on the_____day of _____, 191__, and rentals shall accrue from that date, and shall continue from that time, whether the Central Company uses the property or not. It shall continue for a term of nine hundred and ninety-nine years from the time it goes into effect.

SEC. 18. Notices under this contract shall be in writing to the President, Vice-President or Secretary of the company to be notified.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF Southern Pacific Company, Southern Pacific Railroad Company and Central Pacific Railway Company have caused this instrument to be executed under their respective corporate seals and under the hands of their respective Presidents and Secretaries, or Vice-Presidents and Assistant Secretaries, the day and year above written.

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Utah

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, COMPLAINANT,

v.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY; THE OREGON SHORT LINE RAILROAD COMPANY; THE OREGON RAILROAD & NAVIGATION COMPANY; THE SAN PEDRO, LOS ANGELES & SALT LAKE RAILROAD COMPANY; THE ATCHISON, TOPEKA & SANTA FE RAILWAY COMPANY; THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY; NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY; GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY; THE FARMERS' LOAN & TRUST COMPANY; JACOB H. SCHIFF; OTTO H. KAHN; JAMES STILLMAN; HENRY C. FRICK; WILLIAM A. CLARK; AND ROBERT S. LOVETT, AS TRUSTEE, DEFENDANTS.

PETITION OF THE DEFENDANTS UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY AND OREGON SHORT LINE RAILROAD COMPANY.

To the Honorable Circuit Judges of the Eighth Judicial Circuit, constituting for the purposes of the above entitled cause the District Court of the United States in and for the District of Utah pursuant to the Act of Congress, approved February 11, 1903, as amended by the Act approved June 25, 1910:

Your petitioners respectfully show unto the Court:

I.

Preliminary Statement.

The above entitled cause is a suit in equity instituted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Utah by the United States of America against the defendants above named under the Act of Congress of July 2, 1890, known as the "Sherman Anti-Trust Law." Upon appeal by the complainant from a decree entered by said Circuit Court on the 24th day of June, 1911, dismissing the petition herein, the Supreme Court of the United States reversed the said decree of the Circuit Court as to the acquisition of the stock of the defendant Southern Pacific Company by the defendant Union Pacific Railroad Company and remanded said cause to this Court for further proceedings in conformity with the opinion of said Supreme Court of the United States. In its original opinion rendered on the 2nd day of December, 1912, said Court held that the defendant Union Pacific Railroad Company by the acquisition of about 46 per cent. of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company obtained the control of a competing railroad system and thereby effected a combination in restraint of trade within the meaning of the Sherman Act, and, in respect of the remedy to be applied, said (226 U. S., 61):

> In order to effectually conclude the operating force of the combination such disposition (of the shares of stock of the Southern Pacific Company acquired by the Union Pacific Railroad Company) shall be made subject to the approval and decree of the District Court, and any plan for the disposition of this stock must be such as to effectually dissolve the unlawful combination thus created. The Court shall proceed, upon the presentation of any plan, to hear the Government and defendants and may bring in any additional parties whose presence may be necessary to a final disposition of the stock in conformity to the views herein expressed.
> As to the suggestion made at the oral argument by the Attorney General, in response to a query from the Court as to the nature of the decree, that one might be entered which, while destroying the unlawful combination in so far as the Union Pacific secured control of the competing line of road extending from New Orleans and Galveston to San Francisco and Portland, would permit the Union Pacific to retain the Central Pacific connection from Ogden to San Francisco and thereby to control that line to the coast, thus effecting such a continuity of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific from the Missouri River to San Francisco as was contemplated by the acts of Congress under which they were constructed, it should be said that noth> ing herein shall be considered as preventing the Government or any party in interest, if so desiring, from presenting to the District Court a plan for accomplishing this result, or as preventing it from adopting and giving effect to any such plan so presented.

Thereafter, upon a petition by the United States and certain of the defendants, to the Supreme Court for more definite instructions as to the disposition of the said stock of the Southern Pacific Company, the said Court in a supplementary opinion rendered on the 6th day of January, 1913 (226 U. S., 470), held that a distribution of said stock by sale to the shareholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company substantially in proportion to their respective holdings or by dividend to the stockholders entitled to such dividend would not constitute such a dissolution of the combination as would comply with the direction theretofore given by said Court, and said:

> In rejecting the plan for the transfer of the Southern Pacific Company's stock held for the Union Pacific Company, either by distribution or sale to the stockholders of the Union Pacific Company, we do not mean to preclude the District Court from considering and acting upon plans which may be submitted to it under the former opinion and decree of the court. We are of opinion, however, and now hold that the proposed plan of disposition of the entire stock holding of the Union Pacific Company in the > Southern Pacific Company by transfer to the stockholders of the Union Pacific Company will not so effectually end the combination as to comply with the decree heretofore ordered by this court to be entered.

More than a year prior to the aforesaid decision of the Supreme Court, to wit, in October, 1911, the operating organizations of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and its subsidiary corporations were entirely separated from the operating organizations of the Southern Pacific Company and its subsidiary corporations and since said date the only joint officials and agents of the two systems have been, and at the time of said decision were, nine of the Directors, the Chairman of the Executive Committee, the Directors of Maintenance, Traffic and Purchases, the Controller, Deputy Controller, Secretary and their respective assistants and clerks, and various commercial and soliciting agents. On the 13th day of January, 1913, eight directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, who were also directors of the Southern Pacific Company, resigned from the Board of the Southern Pacific Company and on the 31st day of January, 1913, the only remaining director of the Southern Pacific Company who was also a director of the Union Pacific Railroad Company resigned, all of which resignations were accepted. There have been elected as directors of the Southern Pacific Company, instead of those who so resigned, persons having no official or other relations with the Union Pacific Railroad Company and who had not theretofore served on its Board of Directors. Two of said new members of the Southern Pacific Company Board are members of a Protective Committee formed to represent the interests of the stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company soon after the aforesaid decision of the Supreme Court. Such resignations and elections of officers have occurred since the reconstitution of the Board of Directors of the Southern Pacific Company that the two systems have now no officers in common. Taking effect on the 1st day of February, 1913, all joint commercial and soliciting agencies of the two systems were dissolved and separate agencies were established in lieu thereof.

Your petitioners have prepared the following plan which, in connection with the aforesaid election of independent directors and other officers and the creation of separate agencies, will, they aver, effectually dissolve the combination held unlawful by the Supreme Court.

II.

Plan of Dissolution.

The plan is that: (a) the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company heretofore acquired and now held by the Union Pacific Railroad Company and Oregon Short Line Railroad Company shall be disposed of in such a manner as to preclude the exercise of any control or domination by the Union Pacific Railroad Company system of the management and affairs of the Southern Pacific Company, and that (b) the ownership of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company, with the control of the affairs of that Company incidental to such ownership, shall be transferred from the Southern Pacific Company to the Union Pacific Railroad Company with such adjustments of the ownership and use of railroad lines and appurtenant property as will make the Union Pacific system and Southern Pacific system, when thus reconstituted, separate and independent systems operating competing lines of railroad.

A. Disposition of stockholding of Union Pacific Railroad Company and Oregon Short Line Railroad Company in Southern Pacific Company.

The holding of Southern Pacific Company stock held illegal by the Supreme Court amounts to an aggregate of $126,650,000, par value, of the total outstanding capital stock of said Southern Pacific Company, amounting to $272,672,400, par value. This stock was acquired at various times, sometimes in the name of the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company and at other times in the name of the Union Pacific Railroad Company but is now all held in the name of the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company. The Oregon Short Line Railroad Company is a corporation of the State of Utah, whose entire capital stock except directors' qualifying shares is owned by the Union Pacific Railroad Company. The outstanding capital stock of the Union Pacific Railroad Company amounts to $316,177,300, par value, which is distributed among upwards of 22,000 shareholders. The $146,022,400 of capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company held by shareholders other than the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company is distributed among upwards of 15,000 different shareholders.

It is proposed that the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company, now held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company shall be disposed of by offering to all stockholders, common and preferred, of the Union Pacific Railroad Company the right to subscribe for and purchase one share of such Southern Pacific Company stock for each four shares of the capital stock of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, common and preferred, registered in their names, respectively; and by offering to all stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company (except the Union Pacific Railroad Company and the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company) the right to subscribe for and purchase one share of said Southern Pacific Company capital stock now held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company for each three shares of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company registered in their names, respectively. It is proposed that the subscription and purchase right so offered shall be a right to purchase at the subscription price of $98.67 per share, and accrued dividend, payable in four equal instalments, the first instalment being payable at the time of the subscription and the other instalments in substantially three, six and nine months respectively after the subscription date, with interest on the deferred instalments at a rate per cent per annum equal to the accrued dividend, with an option, however, to each subscriber to anticipate the maturity of any deferred instalment of the subscription price, at any time, upon the payment of the amount of such instalment and the accrued interest thereon. It is proposed that all voting and dividend rights incident to the stock so purchased shall vest in the subscribers, but that the stock certificates shall be held as security for the payment of the deferred instalments. It is further proposed that an underwriting syndicate shall be formed which shall agree to purchase all of said $126,650,000 of capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company to be so offered to the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and the stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company which shall not have been subscribed and purchased by such stockholders pursuant to the aforesaid offer of subscription rights, and upon the same terms as to amounts and times of payment and otherwise as those prescribed with respect to the stockholders; the personnel of such syndicate to be unrestricted.

B. Transfer of control of Central Pacific Railway Company from Southern Pacific Company to Union Pacific Railroad Company.

The Central Pacific Railway Company owns a main line of railway extending from a connection with the line of railway of the Union Pacific Railroad Company near Ogden, Utah, to Sacramento, California, and thence via Lathrop and Niles to Redwood and Oakland, California, with ferries from Oakland to San Francisco, California; and various branches of said main line. Its principal branch lines extend from a connection with the main line at or near Lathrop in a southerly direction to Goshen, California, and from Roseville, California, in a northerly direction to the Oregon-California boundary line. It has under construction and partly constructed a line extending from a connection with the last mentioned branch line at Weed, California, via Klamath Falls, Oregon, to Natron, Oregon. The Southern Pacific Railroad Company owns a shorter and more direct line of railroad than that of the Central Pacific Railway Company between Sacramento and Oakland hereinafter called the "Benicia Line" with a branch therefrom extending from Davis, California, in a northerly direction to a connection with the northern branch of the Central Pacific Railway Company at Tehama, California. The Southern Pacific Railroad Company owns also a main line of railroad extending from San Francisco southerly through California and through Arizona and New Mexico to or near El Paso, Texas, together with numerous branch lines of railroad throughout the State of California. The Southern Pacific Company owns the entire capital stock of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, except qualifying shares held by directors, and operates under lease all the railroads of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. It also controls by stock ownership certain corporations in the States of Texas and Louisiana owning and operating railroads which extend from a connection with the line of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, at or near El Paso, Texas, to New Orleans and Galveston. It also owns lines of steamships operating between New Orleans and Galveston and New York. The connected transportation lines thus controlled by the Southern Pacific Company from San Francisco to New York are commonly known as, and are hereinafter designated as, the "Sunset Route." The Southern Pacific Company also controls by stock ownership the Oregon and California Railroad Company owning a line of railroad from Portland, Oregon, south to a connection with the northern branch of the Central Pacific Railway Company at the Oregon-California boundary, and this line is operated by the Southern Pacific Company under lease. The Southern Pacific Company owns the entire capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company, to wit, $67,275,500 of common stock and $17,400,000 of preferred stock except 13 shares of common stock held by directors as qualifying shares. All of the said stock owned by the Southern Pacific Company is pledged under its Central Pacific Stock Collateral Mortgage to secure an issue of Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) now outstanding to the amount of $34,218,500, par value, of which $5,449,000, par value, are owned by the Union Pacific Railroad Company. These bonds are redeemable at par on the first day of June and the first day of December of any year on six months notice. The railroad lines of the Central Pacific Railway Company are operated by the Southern Pacific Company under lease.

It is proposed as follows:

1. That the Southern Pacific Company shall sell and assign to the Union Pacific Railroad Company all its right, title and interest in and to the capital stock, common and preferred, of the Central Pacific Railway Company held by it and in and to certain stock of the Central Pacific Railroad Company (predecessor in title of the Central Pacific Railway Company) held by the Southern Pacific Company as a muniment of title, subject to the lien of the Southern Pacific Company's Central Pacific Stock Collateral Mortgage, and subject also to a lien in favor of the Southern Pacific Company to secure the payment of all instalments of the consideration to be paid by the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

2. That the control of the board of directors of the Central Pacific Railway Company shall be vested in the Union Pacific Railroad Company by the resignation of the existing directors and the election in their stead of nominees of the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

3. That the Southern Pacific Company shall immediately deliver, or cause to be transferred and delivered, to the Union Pacific Railroad Company or its nominees the certificates representing all stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company and Central Pacific Railroad Company owned by it which is not pledged under its Central Pacific Stock Collateral Mortgage, and will deliver the certificates for all such stock now pledged under that mortgage on the final and complete payment by the Union Pacific Railroad Company of the consideration hereinafter mentioned as soon as the bonds secured by said mortgage shall have been paid either upon maturity or upon redemption prior to maturity.

4. That the Southern Pacific Company shall cancel and surrender the lease under which it operates the properties of the Central Pacific Railway Company.

5. That the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall pay as full consideration for the purchase of the stock aforesaid $14,065,441 in cash, and surrender to the Southern Pacific Company duly canceled the $5,449,000 of the Southern Pacific Company's Four Per Cent Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) now held by it, and shall pay to the Southern Pacific Company as and when collected and received from the subscribers, or from the underwriting syndicate, as the result of the sale contemplated under the foregoing subdivision A the net proceeds of the sale of 846,755 shares of the stock of the Southern Pacific Company now held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, such net proceeds being the gross proceeds of the sale of said number of shares, at $98.67 per share, less the proportion of the underwriting commissions and other expenses applicable to the sale of said shares which the Southern Pacific Company assumes. The payment of such net proceeds of sale is to be made in four equal instalments on dates corresponding with the dates of payment mentioned in the foregoing subdivision A hereof for the payment of the various instalments of the subscription price by the stockholders or by the underwriting syndicate, except that the Southern Pacific Company's proportion of the underwriting commissions and expenses is to be deducted from the first instalment, with an option to the Union Pacific Railroad Company to anticipate the maturity of the payment of any instalment of such proceeds of sale; and provided that if the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall have elected to require the redemption of the Southern Pacific Company's Four Per Cent Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral), it shall not be required to pay in excess of approximately one-half of the aforesaid aggregate money payments unless and until the Southern Pacific Company shall be able to deliver the certificates representing said Central Pacific Railway Company stock released from the lien of its Central Pacific Stock Collateral Mortgage.

6. That the Southern Pacific Company shall at all times duly pay the interest upon its Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) as such interest shall mature, and will pay the principal of said bonds when they become due, whether upon maturity or otherwise, and indemnify the Union Pacific Railroad Company against the enforcement of the lien of the mortgage securing said bonds upon the stocks pledged thereunder; and that whenever requested by the Union Pacific Railroad Company the Southern Pacific Company will call for redemption said Four Per Cent. Gold Bonds (Central Pacific Stock Collateral) provided the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall lend to the Southern Pacific Company the amount necessary for such redemption upon satisfactory security.

7. That the Central Pacific Company shall lease to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company for 999 years that part of its line of railroad from Tehama to the Oregon-California boundary line, at a rental equal to 5 per cent. of the value thereof, which value is to be fixed by agreement of the parties or by arbitration.

8. That the Central Pacific Railway Company shall sell and convey to the Southern Pacific Railway Company its line of railroad, constructed and under construction, from Weed, California, to Natron, Oregon, the Southern Pacific Railroad Company assuming various bonds, notes and other indebtedness of the Central Pacific Railway Company representing the cost incurred or assumed, in constructing or acquiring said line.

9. That the Southern Pacific Company and Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall grant to the Central Pacific Railway Company for 999 years the equal joint use and possession of the Benicia Line from Sacramento to Oakland, with its terminals and other appurtenances, at a rental equal to 2½ per cent. upon the value of said line, which value is to be fixed by agreement of the parties or by arbitration, and upon payment of a proportion of the expenses of operation and maintenance.

10. That the Southern Pacific Company and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall grant to the Central Pacific Railway Company trackage or running rights for a term of 999 years, over the lines of railroad of the Southern Pacific Company and Southern Pacific Railroad Company between Redwood and San Francisco for the operation of through freight trains only, upon a rental to be determined by agreement or by arbitration, and with an option to the Central Pacific Railway Company, to withdraw from such trackage and running rights within two years.

11. That the Central Pacific Railway Company shall grant to Southern Pacific Company and Southern Pacific Railroad Company, or either of them, an option to acquire the equal joint use and possession, for the term of 999 years, of the line of railroad owned by the Central Pacific Railway Company between Newark and Redwood, upon the same terms, conditions and rights as are provided with reference to the joint use and possession of the Benicia Line.

12. That during the continuance of the aforesaid option rights in regard to trackage or joint use, or until the parties shall have previously agreed to the contrary, the interchange of traffic at all present points of interchange between the lines of the Central Pacific Railway Company and other lines of railway now operated by the Southern Pacific Company, or controlled by it, shall be continued, and through trains handled, upon the rates, terms and conditions now in force, in order that there may be no interruption of through trains or changes of rates or the terms on which traffic is handled by reason of any sales, transfers or leases contemplated by this plan, until further agreement of the parties.

13. That the terminals of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company (or the Southern Pacific Company) and of the Central Pacific Railway Company at all junctions of their respective lines shall be subject to the joint and equal use of both companies, their lessees and assigns, for the term of 999 years, upon the payment of a fixed rental based upon the value of such terminals and the payment of an equitable proportion of maintenance and operating expenses and taxes.

14. That the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall purchase certain bonds of branch companies, heretofore assumed by the Central Pacific Railway Company, aggregating $15,000,000, and Extensions Purchase Notes to the amount of $3,084,252.33 issued by the Central Pacific Railway Company, representing a part of the cost of certain branch lines recently acquired by it, all of which obligations are now held by the Southern Pacific Company; and that the Union Pacific Railroad Company will further purchase from the Southern Pacific Company all other indebtedness of the Central Pacific Railway Company representing expenditures for construction and betterments in connection with said branch lines.

15. That the general indebtedness and accounts existing between the Central Pacific Railway Company and Southern Pacific Company (except such as may be evidenced by unmatured bonds of the Central Pacific Railway Company guaranteed by the Southern Pacific Company) shall be mutually offset and adjusted and the balance thereof paid in cash by the party by whom such balance is owing.

16. That the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall indemnify and save harmless the Southern Pacific Company from and against any and all liability existing or which may hereafter arise, by reason of the guaranty by said Southern Pacific Company of the bonds of the Central Pacific Railway Company known as its First Refunding Mortgage Bonds, its Three and One-Half Per Cent. Mortgage Bonds, its Through Short Line Mortgage Bonds and its European Loan Bonds.

17. That the Union Pacific Railroad Company and Central Pacific Railway Company shall proceed with reasonable diligence to effect, as far as possible, a substitution of collateral owned by them for collateral of the Southern Pacific Company now pledged under the European Loan Indenture of the Central Pacific Railway Company which is guaranteed by the Southern Pacific Company.

18. That the agreement embodying the details of this plan shall be subject to the following conditions precedent, and shall not become effective for any purpose until all such conditions have been satisfied, to wit:

(a) That a decree of the District Court of the United States for the District of Utah in the Merger Suit shall be entered, approving the plan hereinbefore recited for the disposition of the capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, and approving the agreement aforesaid.

(b) That the Railroad Commission of the State of California shall consent to and approve (a) the lease of the line of railroad between Tehama and the Oregon-California boundary provided in Section 11 of said agreement; (b) the sale and conveyance of so much of the line of railroad between Weed Station, California, and Natron Station, Oregon, provided in Section 12 of said agreement, as lies within the State of California; (c) the contract for the equal joint use and possession of the line of railroad between Sacramento and Oakland, California, provided in Section 13 of said agreement; (d) the provision contained in Section 14 of said agreement for trackage or running rights between Redwood and San Francisco, California, and (e) the provisions of Section 17 of said agreement, as to joint use of terminals, etc.

(c) That the French banks named in the European Loan Indenture shall consent to the sale of the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company and to the surrender and cancellation by the Southern Pacific Company of its lease of the property of the Central Pacific Railway Company herein provided.

(d) That an underwriting agreement shall be effected as contemplated in subdivision A of this plan.

A copy of the agreement referred to in this subdivision 18, duly executed by the parties thereto is filed herewith.

III.

Explanation of Foregoing Plan.

The foregoing plan for the disposition of the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company's holding of capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company is designed to secure the widest possible distribution of such stockholding, and at the same time to comply with the ruling of the Supreme Court of the United States, expressed in its supplemental opinion rendered on the 6th day of January, 1913, adverse to the then proposed ratable distribution of said stockholding among only the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company. Under the present plan the distribution is to be made to Southern Pacific Company stockholders as well as to the Union Pacific Railroad Company stockholders.

A distribution to the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company ratably in the proportion of their respective holdings of the combined capital stock of the two corporations would result in a distribution to Union Pacific Railroad Company stockholders of more than 68 per cent. of the entire amount of Southern Pacific Company stock to be distributed. In order to reduce the amount of such stock distributable to the Union Pacific Railroad Company stockholders, the percentage of such stockholding to be distributed to the Southern Pacific Company stockholders has been increased to about 38 per cent. of the entire amount.

It is problematical to what extent the subscription rights extended to said stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and Southern Pacific Company will be exercised by them, and therefore in order to insure a sale of said stockholding, it is essential that an underwriting syndicate should be formed to acquire such portion of the stock offered for purchase as shall not be taken by the stockholders of the two companies under the said subscription rights. In order to form any syndicate to assume the obligation to purchase so large an amount of stock, it is essential that all financial institutions and bankers, having the power and means to participate in such a transaction, shall be recognized as qualified members of such syndicate, and it is therefore submitted as an essential feature of the plan for the disposition of said stock, that the personnel of such underwriting syndicate shall be unrestricted. With a view to encouraging the exercise by stockholders of the subscription rights offered, and thereby decreasing the probable amount to be taken by the syndicate under the underwriting agreement, the terms of payment of the subscription price have been made as reasonable as is consistent with safety, instalment payments being extended over a period of nine months.

The aggregate purchase price fixed as the consideration for the sale of the stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company represents an aggregate of $104,189,941, less accrued dividend and underwriting expenses of 846,755 shares of Southern Pacific Company stock. This price has been fixed as the result of long and careful negotiations by the officers and boards of directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and Southern Pacific Company, and it is believed by them to constitute an adequate and fair consideration for the sale of said stock, subject, as it is, to the large aggregate outstanding bonded indebtedness of the Central Pacific Railway Company.

The provision for the lease by the Central Pacific Railway Company to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company of the line of railroad between Tehama and the Oregon-California Boundary is made because said line of railroad is essential to the Southern Pacific Company to connect the lines of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company operated by it with the lines of the Oregon-California Railroad Company also operated by it and so to secure to said company a connected through line to Portland, Oregon.

The sale of the line from Weed, California, to Natron, Oregon, is proposed because said line connects at its northern terminus with the lines of the Southern Pacific System in Oregon, and at its southern terminus with the line between Tehama and the Oregon-California Boundary, which it is proposed to lease to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

The proposed grant of the joint and equal use and possession of the Benicia Line to the Central Pacific Railway Company is necessary to give the main line of the Central Pacific Railway Company a more direct entrance into Oakland and San Francisco than is furnished by the lines south and west of Sacramento owned by the Central Pacific Railway Company.

The various additional provisions for the exchange of trackage and running rights are deemed advisable by the respective parties for the proper, adequate and convenient operation of their respective systems.

The consent and approval of the California Public Utilities Commission is prescribed in Subdivision 18 of the foregoing plan as a condition precedent because under the Statutes of California no sales or leases relating to public utilities may be validly made without the consent of the Public Utilities Commission of that State.

Under the so-called European Loan Indenture of the Central Pacific Railway Company, guaranteed by the Southern Pacific Company to secure an issue of bonds to the amount of 250,000,000 francs, it was covenanted by the Southern Pacific Company that it would not, without the consent of the French Banks, sell the capital stock of the Central Pacific Railway Company owned by it, or surrender or cancel its lease of the railroads of the Central Pacific Railway Company and therefore it is prescribed in Subdivision 18 of the foregoing plan, as one of the conditions precedent of its execution, that the French Banks should consent to such sale and to the surrender of the lease.

IV.

Results of the Adoption of the Plan.

Your petitioners show unto the Court that, upon the adoption and execution of this plan, the combination heretofore adjudged to exist will have been effectually dissolved.

The capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company now held by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company will have passed entirely out of the control of the Union Pacific Railroad Company. About 38 per cent. thereof will have been distributed among the stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company, in the event of their exercise of the subscription rights extended to them, thereby vesting in them, with their present holdings, over 71 per cent. of the total outstanding capital stock of said company; and the remaining amount of such stock to be distributed to the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company will, in the event of their exercise of their subscription rights, be distributed among some 22,000 different holders, and the amount so distributed to the Union Pacific Railroad Company stockholders will constitute less than 29 per cent. of the entire outstanding capital stock of the Southern Pacific Company. In the event of the acquisition of any of said shares by the underwriting syndicate proposed to be formed, such shares will be distributed among a very large number of financial institutions and bankers having no affiliation with the Union Pacific Railroad Company; and in any event, the shares so acquired by such syndicate will undoubtedly, as soon as market conditions permit, be sold in the general market.

The transfer of the control of the Central Pacific Railway Company to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, with the incidental adjustments indicated in the foregoing plan, will create two distinct, independent and naturally competitive railroad systems; the one operated by the Southern Pacific Company from Portland, Oregon, via San Francisco and the Sunset Route, to New York; the other operated by the Union Pacific Railroad Company, from Omaha via Ogden to Portland and via the Central Pacific Railway Company from Omaha, via Ogden, to San Francisco. And the continuous line from the Missouri River to San Francisco, contemplated by the Acts of Congress under which the Central Pacific Railway and the Union Pacific Railroad were constructed, will be secured.

V.

Time for Execution of Plan.

The difficulties and possible delays incident to the complete execution of the foregoing plan are such that the necessities of the situation, in the judgment of your petitioners, require the fixing of a date not earlier than the first day of January, 1914, for the full accomplishment of the plan proposed.

It has been deemed necessary to extend the time for payment of the deferred instalments of the subscription price for the Southern Pacific Company's stock to be offered to stockholders, over a period of nine months from the subscription date.

The securing of the consent of the California Public Utilties Commission and of the French banks to certain features of the plan will probably defer the effective date of the agreement for some time after the entry of a decree herein.

WHEREFORE, your petitioners pray:

That this Court accept and approve the plan set forth in subdivision II of this petition and the agreement filed herewith and direct the execution thereof.

That this Court fix January 1, 1914, as the time within which your petitioners shall carry out said plan, and agreement, with leave, however, to petitioners to apply to the Court, if necessary, for an extension of such time, and for such modification of the plan or other relief as may be necessary.

That all persons be enjoined from interfering in any way with the carrying out of said plan and agreement.

That petitioners may have such other and further relief as may be proper and just in the premises.

v.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, et al.

ON MOTION FOR MODIFICATION OF MANDATE.

Memorandum of Appellees Union Pacific Railroad Company and Oregon Short Line Railroad Company in Reply to Objections Filed in Behalf of Complainant.

I.

There is no doubt of the Court's power to grant the motion. See Smyth v. Ames, 171 U. S., 361; Bank of Commerce v. Tennessee, 163 U. S., 416, 426; United States v. Morant, 124 U. S., 647; Schulten v. Bronson, 104 U. S., 410, 415; Cameron v. United States, 148 U. S., 301.

II.

All actual control by petitioners over the management and affairs of the Southern Pacific Company has been terminated and the stock of the Southern Pacific Company held by petitioners is disfranchised, as explained in the motion submitted herein on April 24, 1913. The public interests will not, therefore, be affected in the slightest degree by any delay in the ultimate disposition of said stock.

III.

The control of this Court over its decree and mandate herein will terminate upon the adjournment of the present term. Upon the expiration of the term at which a decree is entered such decree passes beyond the control of the Court and cannot be corrected, modified or set aside. Schulten v. Bronson, 104 U. S., 410, 415. In view of the exceptionally large amount of stock to be disposed of, the manifest difficulties of the problem, the collateral objects of the government as indicated by the first plan submitted to the District Court and as intimated by the memorandum of the Attorney General upon this motion, it would seem to be most unfortunate to permit this case to get into a condition in which neither this Court nor the District Court would have power to extend the time for working out a satisfactory plan for dealing with this complex situation.

IV.

The only adequate relief which can be afforded by this Court is either an extension of time for a long period, or, as prayed in the pending motion, a modification of the mandate committing the matter of time entirely to the discretion of the District Court. A limitation of such extension to the first day of July, 1913, amounting to an extension of only 50 days, without the possibility of a further enlargement of the time, judged in the light of the difficulties already encountered by petitioners in their attempts to prepare plans acceptable to the Circuit Judges and to the Attorney General, will probably constitute no relief. Such a limited extension would certainly be inadequate if the Attorney-General intends, as his memorandum intimates, to endeavor in connection with the present dissolution to bring about "a state of affairs which will render unnecessary certain troublesome litigation now in contemplation." The Circuit Judges of the Eighth Circuit, who are familiar with the details of the dissolution proceedings herein, are entirely qualified to determine what, if any, further extensions should be granted. There appears to be no justification for the suggestion that the Circuit Judges ought not to be trusted with the exercise of discretion in the matter.

REPLY OF THE UNITED STATES TO MOTION FOR MODIFICATION OF MANDATE ENTERED APRIL 24, 1913.

In the Supreme Court of the United States.

OCTOBER TERM, 1912.

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, appellant, v. THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY et al. } No. 446.

Replying in behalf of the United States to the motion of the Union Pacific Railroad Company (entered April 24, 1913) for modification of the mandate so as to authorize the court below to extend the time for submission of a plan for disposition of the Southern Pacific stock, I respectfully state:

I submit the question, without expressing any opinion thereon, whether this court has jurisdiction to grant the relief now asked.

Under the peculiar circumstances shown, I am of opinion that to extend the time, during which a plan for disposing of the stock in question may be presented, until July 1, 1913, may be greatly to the public interest. Among other things, such an extension, possibly, may result in bringing about a state of affairs which will render unnecessary certain troublesome litigation now in contemplation.

Accordingly, I am willing that the time be enlarged until July 1, 1913. But I emphatically oppose any extension beyond that date, and with equal emphasis oppose an order granting the District Court power to enlarge such time as it may decide.

This cause has been before the courts for more than five years, and the public is entitled to early relief, in harmony with the provision of the statute which declares that "such case shall be given precedence over others and in every way expedited." (32 Stat., 823.)

The original petition was filed February 1, 1908.

The cause was heard below on October 10, 1910, and was held under advisement until June 24, 1911, when a final decree was entered.

On August 31, 1911, an appeal was taken to this court, and, having been advanced, was argued here on April 19, 22, and 23, 1912. The opinion was handed down December 2, 1912.

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Appellant,

vs.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, ET AL.,
Appellees.

APPEAL FROM THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH.

To the Honorable the Chief Justice and Associate Justice of the Supreme Court:

The opinion and mandate of your Honorable Court permitted the parties to this suit to present plans for the dissolution of the unlawful combination within three months after the receipt of your mandate. That time will expire on May 12, 1913. A plan was prepared by the defendants and approved by the Attorney General and it seemed probable that this plan, or some modification of it, would be adopted. The plan was presented to this court, but before it was submitted to the court for action a decision of the Railroad Commission of the State of California rendered it in the opinion of the defendants impracticable and it was withdrawn from the consideration of the court. The defendants desire to present another plan. It is thought that there has been no lack of reasonable diligence on the part of the parties in presenting and urging the adoption of a plan, but that there have been so many parties and interests to be considered that it has not been the fault of the parties that a suitable plan has not been adopted.

We are informed that another plan will be submitted to this court on April 21, 1913, and the court will proceed with due diligence to consider and act upon it. Experience with the former plan indicates, however, that it may possibly fail and that it may be advisable in that event to permit still another plan to be proposed, and the time is so short between this date and May 12, 1913, it seems to us desirable, if in the opinion of your Honorable Court it should seem wise, for your court to extend the time within which a plan or plans may be presented to this court, or to permit this court so to do, for a reasonable time beyond May 12, 1913, upon the motion of any of the parties to this suit.

Dated this 21st day of April, 1913.

WALTER H. SANBORN,
WALTER I. SMITH,
United States Circuit Judges.

I think the parties have been reasonably diligent and should have further time.
